Bobb McKittrick

December 29, 1935 - March 15, 2000

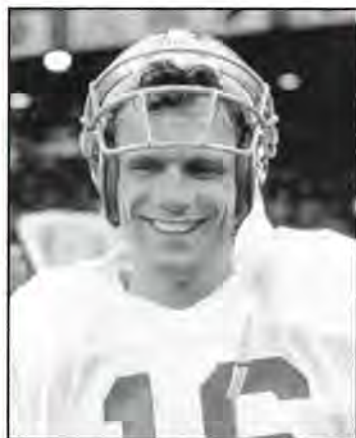

5-Time Super Bowl Champion

49ERS CLASS OF 2000

On July 29, the San Francisco 49ers will celebrate something no other NFL team has in 35 years. Not since the Chicago Bears in 1965 has a team had three players inducted into the Hall of Fame in the same year. Taking their rightful place amongst the most respected players in the history of the game will be Joe Montana, Ronnie Lott and Dave Wilcox.

The trio amassed some amazing numbers during their 35 total years of service with the 49ers, including a combined record of 217-144-9, 17 postseason wins, nine NFC Championship Games, eight Super Bowl Championships, 23 Pro Bowls and 23 All-Pro selections.

JOE MONTANA

In the 1979 NFL Draft, three quarterbacks were taken ahead of Montana (Jack Thompson, third overall, Phil Simms, seventh, and Steve Fuller 23rd), who was not selected until the third round with the 82nd selection overall. Montana, a four-time Super Bowl Champion and three-time Super Bowl MVP with the 49ers, is arguably one of the best quarterbacks to play the game of football.

During his 16-year career, he amassed 40,551 passing yards, which ranks him fourth all-time, and 273 touchdowns. He is second all-time, to Steve Young, in career passer rating (92.3) and completion percentage (63.2). He has passed for 3,000 yards in a season a total of eight times to rank fourth all-time behind Dan Marino (13), John Elway (12) and Warren Moon (9).

Montana had a 15-8 mark as a starter in the postseason, directing his team to the playoffs 12 times, and finished his career with a 117-47 record as a regular season starter. He boasts a 95.3 career passer rating in 23 postseason games and holds career NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). In four Super Bowls he attempted 122 passes and never threw an interception.

Montana is one of the most decorated players in NFL history, with back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990, in addition to earning three Super Bowl MVPs. He also was named Sports Illustrated's Sportsman-of-the-Year in 1990. He was named All-Pro eight times in his career. Football News decorated him with the NFL MVP in 1984 and the NFC MVP in 1989. In addition, in 1989, Montana's fourth and final Super Bowl year, he was named as the NFL Player-of-the-Year, NFL Offensive Player-of-the-Year and the NFC Offensive Player-of-the-Year. He also was named the 49ers' Miller Lite NFL Man-of-the-Year in 1984, and the Miller Lite NFL Player-of-the-Year in 1989 and 1990.

Montana orchestrated 31 fourth quarter comebacks during his career, including 26 with the 49ers. Two of his most famous were "The Catch" by Dwight Clark in the 1981 NFC Championship Game against Dallas, and "The Drive" in Super Bowl XXIII vs. Cincinnati. The drive, which started with 3:20 remaining in the game, was 11 plays long and was capped by a touchdown pass to John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining to give the 49ers a 20-16 victory and another Super Bowl Championship.

RONNIE LOTT

A 14-year veteran of the NFL, Lott is known as one of the most feared and ferocious hitters in league history. Owner of four Super Bowl rings, Lott holds the NFL Record for postseason interceptions with nine. He also holds 49ers team records in career interceptions (51), interceptions in a season (10), career interception yards (643) and interceptions returned for a touchdown (5). Lott was a member of three different NFL clubs, the 49ers (1981-90), the Raiders (1991-92) and the Jets (1993-94).

Lott, a 10-time Pro Bowler, played three different positions in his career (CB, FS and SS) and is the only player in the NFL's modern era to earn First Team All-Pro honors at the three different positions. He also has more consensus All-Pro selections than any other member of the Class of 2000, with six and was a First Team All-Pro choice 10 times. Between his First Team, Second Team and Honorable Mentions, Lott was an All-Pro in 13 of his 14 seasons. The only season he wasn't named was 1985 when he switched from cornerback to safety.

Lott, who was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team, 1980s All-Decade Team and the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team, in his rookie year tied a rookie record, running back three interceptions for touchdowns. Surprisingly enough, Lott, who ranks fifth all-time with 63 interceptions, only led the league in interceptions twice (1986 with SF and 1991 with LA).

Lott was the first choice of the 49ers in the 1981 draft, the eighth selection overall. In his 14 seasons, he posted 1,161 tackles, 16 forced fumbles, 14 fumble recoveries and 8.5 sacks.

DAVE WILCOX

At each season's end, the 49ers coaches would grade all positions and assign them a score. The maximum score for linebacker was 750. In 1973, Wilcox posted 104 tackles, three for a loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. His final score for the season was 1,360. That season Wilcox was an All-Pro and a member of the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to play the game, Dave Wilcox, this year's Senior Committee selection, was nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and players because of his hard-nosed, hard hitting playing style. In his 11-year career with San Francisco, Wilcox earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Wilcox also won the team's Len Eshmont Award in 1967, which is given annually to the 49ers player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont, a member of the original 1946 49ers squad. Wilcox finished his career with the 49ers with 14 interceptions for 149 yards and one touchdown. He also notched 12 fumble recoveries for 48 yards and one touchdown in his career.

When Dick Butkus, whom most consider one of the best linebackers ever, was asked if Dave Wilcox belonged in the Hall of Fame, his response was, "Who was better?" Mike Ditka says that Wilcox was "one of the reasons I retired, I couldn't get off the line of scrimmage against him."

Denise DeBartolo York

OWNER

With more than 20 years experience in the field of management and real estate development, Denise DeBartolo York serves as chairman of The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (EJDC) and oversees the Corporation's portfolio, including the five-time world champion San Francisco 49ers. Headed by Denise, the corporation is ranked 56th in this year's Working Woman Top 500 Woman-Owned businesses list.

DeBartolo York, who previously served as Executive Vice President of Personnel and Corporate Marketing/Communications for EJDC, was instrumental in the development of the EJDC's employee programs and communications tools. Based on her accomplishments, she was elevated to the position of Vice Chairman in April 1994. After the death of her father, Edward J. DeBartolo in December 1994, DeBartolo York was named Chairman.

When the Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation owned the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League (1981-91), Denise was one of only a few female executives in the league. She was team President when the Penguins won their first Stanley Cup title in 1991. During three seasons as Pittsburgh's President, DeBartolo York helped the Penguins post a 113-106-21 record and qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs twice. She also was instrumental in allowing the city of Pittsburgh to host the NHL All-Star Game for the first time ever, January 21, 1990. The DeBartolos have been widely recognized as the family that saved hockey in the tri-state area by establishing a championship caliber organization and drafting star players like Mario Lemieux (1984) and Jaromir Jagr (1990).

In addition to her business responsibilities, DeBartolo York gives generously of her resources and time to numerous charitable and community organizations, including the recent development of the DeBartolo Stadium Club at Youngstown State University. As a member of Ursuline Sisters Financial Advisory Board, DeBartolo York assisted them in developing and implementing a massive fundraising drive for the construction of a new preschool, kindergarten and adult education center.

She supports the DeBartolo Family Foundation's intent to utilize grant funds to provide help for the poor, the underprivileged and the needs of children. Additionally, she is committed to the efforts of the 49ers Foundation.

In 1991, she served as the chairperson for MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) Project Red Ribbon Campaign and is currently involved in the Corporation's efforts to support the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. She was recently recognized for the contribution of three additional classrooms and Library to St. Charles Elementary School in Boardman, Ohio.

DeBartolo York began her career with EJDC after graduating from St. Mary's College at Notre Dame. She and her husband, John York, are the parents of two sons and twin daughters.

John York

VICE PRESIDENT, SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, EDWARD J. DEBARTOLO CORPORATION

As Executive Vice President for the Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation, John York oversees the day-to-day operations of the Corporation's portfolio and as Vice President of the San Francisco 49ers, the Corporation's largest asset, York's responsibilities include providing oversight between the company's home office in Youngstown, Ohio and the 49ers in San Francisco.

A member of the Board of Directors, York is essential in steering the DeBartolo Corporation's other business responsibilities while maintaining interests in several other ventures, including an investment firm based in Youngstown, OH and a software systems organization in Nashville, TN.

York, a successful entrepreneur with a multi-faceted business background, has a proven record for developing turnkey operations. In 1982, he founded DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH. From three employees, York molded a 500-person operation with facilities in three states. With revenues between $25 to $30 million annually, his business was considered among the largest in the Midwest. DeYor Laboratories was sold to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

Bringing this expertise to the DeBartolo Corporation, York assumed the position of Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations in December 1994. York successfully instituted programs designed to streamline operations and enhance the overall value of the racing portfolio. He developed the inaugural DeBartolo Racing Challenge in 1997, tying together the Derbies at Thistledown, Remington Park and Louisiana Downs for three-year olds. The single winner of the three DeBartolo races collected a $1 million bonus. Thistledown in Cleveland, OH and Remington Park in Oklahoma City, OK were sold to Magna International, Inc., in 1999. Seeing the value in the DeBartolo Challenge, Magna will continue this tradition and invited York to sit on their Board of Directors. Since 1995, York has been a director of Equibase, providing statistical racing information to the industry and patrons.

In addition to his business acumen, York is noted for his generous support of youth activities and education. Through contributions of time and resources, he has actively participated in many worthwhile community organizations. He currently serves as Vice President for the Boardman Community Baseball Association, an area baseball league for children ages five through 18. He was instrumental in the construction of "Field of Dreams," a local baseball complex comprised of 20 baseball fields. He participated in local youth basketball programs as a coach and organizer. Supporting local education, York was recognized in 1996 for his generosity and guidance in the renovation of the library at St. Charles Elementary School, as well as the addition of three new classrooms in 1997. In the spring of 1999, York donated a new math and science building at his alma mater Little Rock Catholic High School.

A native of Muskogee, OK, York graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1971. After receiving his doctorate from Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in 1975, York underwent seven years of post-doctorate training at such prominent universities as Loyola of Chicago and Vanderbilt. An accomplished writer and lecturer, York has numerous presentations to his credit. He also belongs to several professional societies, including the American Society of Clinical Pathology, International Academy of Pathology and the American Medical Association.

Bill Walsh

VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Bill Walsh, the man who took over a losing San Francisco 49ers team in 1979 and built it into the most successful NFL franchise over the last two decades, returned to the organization to guide it into the next millenium. He was named Vice President/General Manager of the 49ers January 20, 1999. His duties include coordinating all aspects of football operations, including personnel decisions, the college draft and training camp as well as being instrumental in the daily management of the organization.

Under Walsh's direction the 49ers experienced heights of victory never reached prior to his arrival as head coach in 1979. He was appointed the team's General Manager in 1982 and ascended to the role of President in 1985. During this period, Walsh was responsible for all major organizational decisions. During the 10-year tenure (1979-88), Walsh laid the foundation of success that the 49ers have achieved over the last 20 years, including the beginning (1983) of an unprecedented streak of 16 consecutive 10-win seasons.

Walsh was at the helm of one of the greatest success stories in the history of professional sports. In 1979, he took over a team that went 2-14 the previous season and transformed it into a Super Bowl champion in just three seasons. Under Walsh's direction, the 49ers won three Super Bowl titles (1981, '84 and '88), made seven NFC postseason appearances and claimed six NFC West division championships. He was twice named NFL Coach-of-the-Year (1981, 1984) and was later named NFL Coach-of-the-Decade for the 1980s.

Walsh became one of only 14 coaches in the history of professional football to be elected to the Hall of Fame, when he was enshrined in 1993. He compiled a .617 winning percentage with a 102-63-1 career record that included 10 wins in 14 postseason games. He was the first coach in team history to reach the 100-win plateau.

Walsh's first collegiate head coaching job came at Stanford in 1977, where he directed the Cardinal to a 17-7 record and captured wins in the Bluebonnet and Sun Bowls during his two-year tenure. Walsh returned to Stanford in 1992 and promptly led the Cardinal to a 10-3 record that concluded with a New Year's Day win over Penn State in the Blockbuster Bowl. It was the school's first New Year's Day bowl game victory in 21 years. He remained at Stanford through the 1994 season.

In 1994, Walsh was instrumental in the establishment and management of the World League of American Football, now known as NFL Europe. He has continued to serve the league as a consultant and representative in various NFL ventures.

Walsh's impact on the coaching industry is apparent by the rise of former assistants, players and people who have come under his influence, including Dennis Green, Mike Holmgren, Mike Shanahan, Ray Rhodes, Jeff Fisher, Sam Wyche, Rod Dowhower, Bruce Coslet, Sherman Lewis, Brian Billick, Gary Kubiak, George Seifert, Jon Gruden, Paul Hackett, Tom Holmoe, Dwaine Board, Bobb McKittrick, Bill McPherson, Tom Rathman, Harry Sydney and Tom Lovat.

In 1987, Walsh created the Minority Coaching Fellowship program that has produced, among others, Tyronne Willingham, Stanford's current head coach. The NFL later adopted this Fellowship as a league-wide program.

After 10 seasons with San Francisco, Walsh joined NBC Sports in 1989 and teamed with award-winning announcer Dick Enberg for three seasons as the network's top analyst on NFL and Notre Dame telecasts.

Walsh earned a bachelor's degree (1955) and a master's in education (1959) from San Jose State. He is author of two books Finding the Winning Edge and Building a Champion.

Walsh and his wife, Geri, are the parents of three children: Steve, Craig and Elizabeth.

VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

With 15 years experience in financial support and management guidance, Keith Lenhart is in his second year as Vice President/Chief Financial Officer for the 49ers. He is responsible for providing ownership oversight for The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation and Denise DeBartolo York, as well as handling all business operations for the team and providing financial guidance and support to all of the team's football-related activities.

Lenhart was originally appointed Vice President of the 49ers in February 1999 before being named Vice President/CFO in May 1999. In addition to his current role and CPA status, he has established strong leadership credentials that have placed him high among his peers in the executive business community.

Prior to joining The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation in 1994, and after graduating from Youngstown State University in 1985, Lenhart's professional career began to develop with a command position at Hill, Barth & King CPAs. HBK is a prestigious regional accounting firm with offices in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Florida and Virginia. During his tenure with HBK, he was a primary consultant to The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation, involved heavily in the financial operations of the corporation, the San Francisco 49ers and the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League. In 1991, Lenhart's financial expertise was instrumental in the sale of the Penguins, and he has earned a reputation of decisive management with creative style through his leadership and financial strengths.

Transporting his professional expertise, Lenhart accepted the position of Vice President/Controller with The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation in 1994. In addition to closing major corporate deals and implementing an improved sophisticated operational accounting system at the Corporation's former three thoroughbred race tracks, he was vital in negotiating and closing the corporation's multi-hundred million dollar debt refinancing in 1998.

Being recognized as an integral part of the day-to-day operations of EJDC, his financial expertise and decision-making abilities merited his involvement in the operational and business aspects of the San Francisco 49ers. Working closely with members of the front office, Lenhart has been instrumental in refining the financial reporting of the 49ers and coordinating an operational and financial exchange between the corporate offices in Ohio and the team offices in California.

In addition to his business responsibilities, Lenhart is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, as well as the Ohio Society of CPAs. Lenhart, born (9-28-63) in Jeanette, PA, is actively involved with the adult education program and the school age children's program at his church. He is married to the former Kathy Paulsen and they are the parents of three children: Zachary (10-1-88), Caitlin (9-28-90), and Abigail (9-24-96).

John McVay

VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John McVay is in his second season as Vice President/Director of Football Operations. He is responsible for managing many aspects of football operations, including contract negotiations, preseason scheduling and salary cap management, among many other duties.

McVay spent 17 years (1979-95) with the 49ers with administrative responsibilities including Vice President and General Manager, Director of Player Personnel, Director of Football Operations, Vice President for Football Administration, Administrative Vice President and Assistant to the President. During his tenure, the 49ers claimed five Super Bowl titles. He was named The Sporting News NFL Executive-of-the-Year in 1989, following the team's fourth Super Bowl.

He came to the 49ers after three seasons (two and one-half as Head Coach) with the New York Giants (1976-78) and two years as the Head Coach and General Manager of the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League, where his teams were 24-7 during the 1974 and '75 seasons. He retired from the 49ers February 1, 1996 and returned to the team October 20, 1998.

McVay's coaching career included nine years of high school football in Ohio: three years at Lancaster High, one year at Franklin High and five years at Canton Central Catholic High, where he compiled a 41-7 record.

From the prep ranks, he became an assistant on Duffy Daugherty's Michigan State staff (1962-64) before taking over at Dayton prior to joining the WFL. He was Head Coach (1965-73) and Athletic Director (1972-73) at Dayton, where he led the 1966 Flyers to their first winning season (8-2) in 10 years.

Born (1-5-31) in Bellaire, OH and a product of the famous high school football town of Massillon, OH, McVay was an All-Ohio center as a Massillon schoolboy. He was elected to the prestigious Massillon Hall of Fame in 1994.

An All-Midwest selection as a center at Miami University (known nationally as the "Cradle of Coaches") in Oxford, OH, he played for both Woody Hayes and Ara Parseghian. Hayes awarded McVay Miami's last available football scholarship, and John went on to become a team captain for the Redskins. He is a member of that school's athletic Hall of Fame.

McVay's three sons all followed in his collegiate football footsteps. Jim, the Executive Director for college football's Outback Steakhouse Bowl in Tampa, FL, was quarterback/safety at Dayton; John Jr. played safety for Miami; and Tim, who was captain at Indiana, also played safety.

John, and his wife Susan, live in Granite Bay, CA.

Terry Donahue

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL/ASSISTANT G.M.

Terry Donahue is in his second season with the 49ers, handling the responsibilities of Director of Player Personnel and Assistant General Manager. His primary duties include managing the 49ers scouting and draft activities in addition to coordinating the team's pro personnel department. He will continue to work closely with Bill Walsh, John McVay and Steve Mariucci in the handling of the football operations.

Donahue joined the 49ers after spending three years (1996-98) as the lead college football analyst for CBS Sports. Prior to going into broadcasting, Donahue became the winningest coach in Pac 10 history, posting a 151-74-8 (.665) record during a 20-year (1976-95) head coaching career at UCLA.

During his two-decade reign, Donahue built UCLA into one of the top programs in the country. The Bruins finished in the Top 20 12 times and cracked the Top 10 five times under Donahue's direction. He registered a 98-51-5 (.653) conference record and guided the Bruins to 13 bowl games, including four Rose Bowls, and five Pac 10 championships. The 98 wins are the most in conference history, and he posted a winning record against every Pac 10 opponent. Donahue had an 8-4-1 record in bowl games and is one of only two coaches in NCAA history to win eight consecutive bowl appearances.

UCLA produced 34 first-team All-Americans and had 14 players selected in the first round of the NFL draft during Donahue's tenure.

The Southern California native went to UCLA as a walk-on and started two seasons (1965-66) at defensive tackle. After graduating in 1967, he became defensive line coach at Kansas before returning to UCLA as offensive line coach in 1971. He assumed the head coaching position when Dick Vermeil resigned to coach the Philadelphia Eagles in 1976.

Donahue was a starting linebacker at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks, CA. After playing freshman football at San Jose State, he attended L.A. Valley College before enrolling at UCLA, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history in 1967. He later added a master's degree from UCLA in kinesiology in '77.

Terry was born (6-24-44) in Los Angeles, CA. He and his wife, Andrea, have three grown children: Nicole, Michele, and Jennifer.

Bill McPherson

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

In 1999, Bill McPherson made the transition from the coaching staff to administration, taking over as the Director of Pro Personnel. McPherson will handle the research of player movement and evaluation of talent in the NFL, as well as assisting with game plan formulation. He retired from coaching following the 1998 season.

McPherson served 20 years (1979-98) as an assistant coach for the 49ers. One of the most respected teachers in the game, his coaching capacities included assistant head coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach, defensive coordinator, and defensive assistant.

A defensive tackle at Santa Clara in the early '50s, McPherson began coaching in 1956 at his high school alma mater, San Jose's Bellarmine Prep (1956-62), following U.S. Army service in Korea.

He later was the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Santa Clara for 12 years (1963-74) before moving to UCLA as defensive line coach (1975-77).

At UCLA, he worked with Dick Vermeil, whom he later joined as an assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles (1978) as linebackers coach for one year before joining the 49ers in 1979.

"Mac" was inducted into Santa Clara's Athletic Hall of Fame as a player and coach (1984) and was appointed to the University's Board of Fellows in 1989. He holds a business degree from Santa Clara ('54) and a teacher's certification (secondary degree) from San Jose State ('58).

Born in Santa Clara, CA (10-24-31), Bill and his wife, Elsie, have five grown children: Michael, Claire, Joanne, Marianne and Patrick, who works for the Denver Broncos as an Offensive Assistant. The couple lives in San Jose, CA.

Dominic Corsell

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/SALARY CAP COORDINATOR

Dominic Corsell is in his 10th year with the San Francisco 49ers and his sixth as Football Operations/Salary Cap Coordinator.

In his current position, Corsell acts as the liaison between football operations and the teams business office. He is responsible for the management of player salaries as they relate to compliance with NFL salary cap rules, and the research of player movement and contract developments within the league in order to forecast market values and trends. He also assists Director of Football Operations John McVay in player contract negotiations and general football administration.

Corsell, 38, spent six years working for the DeBartolo Corporation as an audit supervisor before joining the 49ers business office in 1990. He is a 1984 graduate of Youngstown State University with a Bachelors degree in Business Administration & Accounting.

Born in Youngstown, OH (8-11-61), Dominic, and his wife, Donna, reside in San Jose, CA.

MARIE P. DeBARTOLO SPORTS CENTRE

In loving memory of their mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers' Owner Denise DeBartolo York and her brother, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. dedicated the team's training facility and office complex in August 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of 3Com Park), the complex provides players, coaches, and staff with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations, and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the facility exemplifies the DeBartolos' strive for perfection and drive for superiority. It also reflects their dedication to the organization and first-class standard for operating procedures.

Three natural grass practice fields, with underground drainage and watering systems, allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions.

A two-story, 52,000 square-foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities with the exception of the ticket and luxury suite operations, which remain at 3Com Park. Located upstairs at the facility are offices for coaches, administration, marketing, business operations, public relations, pro scouting, and college scouting.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with 60 permanent lockers and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps when squads are larger.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-by-40-foot hydro-therapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms, each featuring a video cassette projector, allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games, practice sessions, and upcoming opponents.

Media facilities include two interview rooms, a sizable workroom, alongside a 120-seat auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), making the set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the media workroom is a patio area used for press luncheons and other team-related activities.

UNBEAT-A-BOWL

With a 5-0 mark in the Super Bowl, the 49ers own the best record in the history of the NFL's biggest game. San Francisco is one of five unbeaten teams in Super Bowl play, and one of two unbeaten in multiple appearances. The New York Giants are 2-0, while the Chicago Bears and New York Jets are each 1-0. The 49ers are 5-1 in league title games if you count the 21-7 loss to Cleveland in the 1949 AAFC Championship Game.

Team of the 80's

As Chief Executive Officer of the 49ers from its acquisition until 1997, Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. saw his primary role as one of providing emotional and financial support for the players and coaches. Under his leadership the 49ers earned the moniker "Team of the 80's" after claiming four Super Bowl titles during that decade. They extended their dominance into the 90s, becoming only NFL team to produce 10-or-more wins for 16 consecutive seasons (1983-98).

Since 1981, the 49ers have won 13 division titles, five conference championships and five Super Bowl championships (the first franchise in NFL history to win five), claiming the world title in 1981 (Super Bowl XVI), '84 (Super Bowl XIX), '88 (Super Bowl XXIII), '89 (Super Bowl XXIV) and '94 (Super Bowl XXIX).

Lisa DeBartolo

Community Outreach

Serving as Director of the 49ers Foundation from 1993 to 1999, Lisa DeBartolo was instrumental in venturing into the private sector and building rewarding relationships with local businesses. She also took the lead in producing several unique fundraising events and community outreach programs. Under her leadership, the 49ers Foundation helped hundreds of organizations and awarded well over $1,000,000 in financial support to local agencies.

Jim McCloskey

PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 49ERS FOUNDATION

San Francisco native Jim McCloskey begins his first year as the President of the Board of Directors for the 49ers Foundation.

Born and raised in San Francisco, McCloskey attended Balboa High before spending three years in the United States Army where he was stationed in Europe. Following his stint in the army, he returned to the Bay Area and launched a highly successful business career.

He currently serves as the President of D. Zelinsky & Sons, a national commercial painting contracting company. He also serves as Vice President of Installation Service Corporation and a principle in Rainbow Zelinsky Restoration and Waterproofing Corporation in San Francisco.

McCloskey, a widower, is the father of one son, Jim, age 31; one daughter, Vicky, age 26; and one granddaughter, Alexandria.

HELPING KIDS KICK-OFF DREAMS

The 49ers Foundation was established in July 1991 and serves as one of the team's community outreach divisions. The Internal Revenue Service has determined that the 49ers Foundation is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501 c (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. A Board of Directors, comprised of several local executives from the public sector, oversee the 49ers Foundation. The Board of Directors work closely with the Executive Director who manages all the operation and administrative duties necessary to continually increase and strengthen the Foundation's community outreach efforts.

OUR MISSION

The 49ers Foundation is dedicated to assisting established education, health and sports oriented non-profit organizations committed to serving Bay Area children and teens in need. We offer an array of unique resources and financial support to encourage, enrich and empower youth throughout the greater San Francisco Bay Area.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

PROGRAMS & PARTNERSHIPS

We are proud to provide annual financial assistance to the following community programs with exceptional youth participation and outreach records:

The 49ers Academy

Located in East Palo Alto, the 49ers Academy serves 153 students in 5th through 8th grade who are identified as children "at risk" of dropping out of school. The role of the 49ers Academy is to provide students with a personalized educational setting, as well as offer additional health and human services to the students and their families. Smaller class sizes and additional staff help create a nurturing environment.

To learn more about the 49ers Academy contact:

- Michelle Murnane, Executive Director, 650-614-4303 or
- Visit www.49ers-academy.org

The Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team Program

The Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team was formed in 1996 and is a partnership established by the Golden State Warriors, Oakland A's, Oakland Raiders, San Francisco 49ers, San Francisco Giants and San Jose Sharks. Each participating team has contributed to the scholarship program in a collective effort to assist Bay Area high school students achieve goals of higher education. BAASST scholarships are awarded to six successful students residing within the Bay Area's nine counties. All public high schools within this vicinity are encouraged to participate. For more information about the Bay Area All-Star Scholarship Team:

- Contact your public high school counselor or principal.
- To be eligible for consideration, you must be nominated by a school official or your high school counselor.
- If your high school does not have the necessary information, please contact the 49ers Foundation at 408-562-4949.

"Make the Grade, Make the Team"

"Make the Grade, Make the Team" was established in 1998 in partnership with the San Jose Mercury News to promote literacy and geography. By using the SJMN publication to complete specific assignments, participating students begin to improve and advance their critical thinking, social science, math, geography, language arts and overall academic skills. There were 135 classrooms that participated in 1999's program, representing more than 3,500 students.

Bay Area teachers interested in launching "Make the Grade, Make the Team" in their classroom should contact:

- Sandi Marine, Coordinator, SJ Mercury News in Education, 408-920-5272 or
- The 49ers Foundation at 408-562-4949.

D.A.R.E.

The Drug Abuse Resistance Program (D.A.R.E.) is the largest most visible drug prevention program in the United States taught by local police departments to schools in their community. The program promotes positive interaction between the juvenile community and police officers, as well as drug awareness.

In accordance with D.A.R.E.'s mission and objectives, the 49ers Foundation is very supportive of the Los Altos Police Department's efforts, providing the agency with funds to promote this effort. Since 1987, L.A.P.D. has successfully overseen the D.A.R.E. program at three elementary schools within their community. Their program reaches over 1,500 students per year.

- We are currently exploring a more extensive partnership with D.A.R.E. America to benefit several communities in the greater Bay Area. Stay tuned for more details!

San Jose Cleveland Ballet Student Matinee Program

The San Jose Cleveland Ballet Student Matinee Program was developed to encourage and support children from low-income communities and schools interested in classical arts. Our primary focus groups are children in grades 3 through 8.

We are proud to provide approximately 200 children with the opportunity to attend a high-quality, full-length ballet production, staged with the same spectacular sets and costumes that patrons pay top dollar to see.

For detailed information about this program please contact:

- Jennifer Watkins with the San Jose Cleveland Ballet at 408-288-2820 x205 or

Steve Mariucci HEAD COACH

Steve Mariucci enters his fourth season with the 49ers as the team's head coach. He is the 13th head coach in 49ers' history.

With a 29-19 (.604) record and two postseason trips after his first three years as head coach, Mariucci has established himself as one of the finest coaches in the NFL.

Mariucci set an NFL record for the fastest start at home in league history, winning his first 18 games, eclipsing the 13-0 mark John Madden had with Oakland in 1969-70. Overall, Mariucci has a 21-5 mark at 3Com, including playoffs. He is one of only three coaches in league history to win 12-or-more games in each of his first two seasons, and his 25 wins in those two seasons rank as the second-best two-year mark in league history, trailing only George Seifert's 28-4 record.

In 1999, Mariucci directed the league's top rated rushing offense for the second consecutive year with 2,095 yards rushing, 49ers became the first team since 1991-92 (Buffalo) to lead the NFL in rushing two years in a row. Defensively, two players, Bryant Young and Lance Schulters, were invited to the Pro Bowl. Young also was named Comeback Player-of-the-Year by Associated Press after a remarkable recovery from a career-threatening leg injury suffered against the New York Giants (11-30-98).

Despite a disappointing 4-12 season, Mariucci was able to resurrect a running game that lost Pro Bowler Garrison Hearst before the season began. Under Mariucci's guidance, newly-acquired RB Charlie Garner's 1,764 yards of total offense ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL. His 1,229 rushing yards ranked fourth-best for a single-season performance in team history. In addition to leading the 49ers in rushing, Garner established career-highs in receptions (56) and yards (535).

Mariucci's 1998 squad had the NFL's top-rated offense and became the first team since the 1941 Chicago Bears to lead the league in gross passing yards and rushing yards in the same season. The 49ers led the league in nine different categories, including total offense, rushing yards, gross passing yards and first downs, while breaking four team records. San Francisco led the NFL and set a team record with 6,801 yards of total offense, breaking the previous mark (6,435) set in 1993. They led the NFL and set a team record with an average of 425.1 yards per game, the second best in league history. The 49ers also set team records and led the NFL with 2,544 yards rushing and 381 first downs.

In addition to team accomplishments, Mariucci's 1998 troops put together a number of outstanding individual performances, including five Pro Bowl selections. Garrison Hearst led NFC running backs in three rushing categories: longest run (96t), yards in a game (198), and average yards per attempt (5.1); Steve Young threw a career-high 36 touchdown passes and completed 322-of-517 passes for a career-high 4,170 yards; and Young and Jerry Rice combined to become the NFL's all-time QB-WR scoring tandem, breaking the record of 79 held by Dan Marino and Mark Clayton.

In his inaugural year, Mariucci posted a 13-3 record in 1997 and led the 49ers to the NFC West title for the 13th time in a 17-year span, tying a league record (Chicago Bears) in the process for fastest to a division title by sealing it up in Game 11. He became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his first season, and only the fourth to accomplish the feat directly out of the college ranks. Mariucci is the only head coach ever to lead his team to the NFC Championship Game one year removed from college. With 13 regular season wins in his first season, Mariucci ranked second all-time in wins for a rookie head coach. He established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game winning streak.

Mariucci joined the 49ers staff January 16, 1997 after spending one season as head coach at the University of California. In 1996, he led a young Cal team to a 6-5 regular season record and a trip to the Aloha Bowl. His implementation of the West Coast offense helped the Bears average 457.6 yards per game, including a school record 321.5 through the air. Also under Mariucci's guidance was Kansas City's 1997 fourth-round pick, Pat Barnes, who set eight Pac 10 records and 30 Cal records.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Mariucci was quarterbacks coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1992-95, tutoring the likes of three-time MVP Brett Favre, Mark Brunell, Ty Detmer and Kurt Warner.

During his college days, Mariucci led Northern Michigan on the greatest turnaround in college football history. After posting an 0-10 record in 1974, Mariucci directed the Wildcats to a 13-1 record and the 1975 NCAA Division II National Championship. The two-time All-America quarterback (1976-77) was voted the team MVP for three consecutive seasons, establishing 14 school passing records prior to his graduation in 1977.

Steve began his coaching career at his alma mater (1978-79), serving as the quarterbacks and running backs coach, then moved on to Cal State Fullerton as the quarterbacks and special teams coordinator (1980-82). For the next two seasons, Mariucci was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Louisville (1983-84) before accepting his first pro position in 1985 with the USFL's Orlando Renegades as receivers coach. Later that fall, he had a brief stint at the Los Angeles Rams as quality control coach, and then transferred to the University of Southern California in '86 to accept the receivers/special teams coordinator post.

After a year at USC, Mariucci spent the next five years at Cal as the team's wide receivers and special teams coach (1987-89), then as offensive coordinator (1990-1991). In 1991, his offense led the Bears to a 10-2 record and a No. 7 national ranking. Mariucci joined the Packers in 1992 and spent four seasons as quarterbacks coach under Mike Holmgren. Mariucci was elected into Northern Michigan University Hall of Fame in 1988 and elected into the Upper Peninsula of Michigan Hall of Fame in 1995.

A native of Iron Mountain, MI, Steve was born November 4, 1955. He and his wife, Gayle, have four children: sons, Tyler (11-28-84), Adam (8-23-86), Stephen (2-3-89), and daughter, Brielle (9-19-95).

Mariucci's coaching background: 1978-79 (Northern Michigan), 1980-82 (Cal State-Fullerton), 1983-84 (Louisville), 1985 (Orlando Renegades, USFL), 1985 (Los Angeles Rams), 1986 (Southern California), 1987-91 (California), 1992-95 (Green Bay Packers), 1996 (California), 1997-curr. (49ers).

JERRY ATTAWAY PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Jerry Attaway, in his 18th season as coordinator for physical development, supervises the team's weight/exercise training and the dietary/nutritional needs of the players.

Attaway came to the 49ers following five years in a similar capacity at the University of Southern California (1978-82). During his first three years at USC, he was the assistant offensive line coach, as well as coordinator for physical development.

A product of UC Davis and Sacramento State, Attaway transferred to Sacramento State after an injury ended his football career.

Collegetically, he served as an assistant coach at UC Davis (1970-72), the College of Idaho (1973-75) and Utah State (1976-77), prior to his USC coaching stint.

After earning a degree in physical education and biology from Sacramento State in 1972, Attaway received his master's degree in education, with an emphasis in guidance and counseling, from the College of Idaho in '74. He often conducts health workshops that focus on weight loss and nutrition.

Born in Susanville, CA (1-3-46), Jerry and his wife, Cheryl, live in San Jose, CA.

Attaway's coaching background: 1970-72 (UC Davis), 1973-75 (College of Idaho), 1976-77 (Utah State), 1978-82 (Southern California), 1983-curr. (49ers).

MICHAEL BARNES STRENGTH DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Michael Barnes is in his seventh year with the 49ers. His primary role with the team focuses on the area of strength training.

Barnes, 34, joined the 49ers coaching staff following four years at the University of California, where he served as assistant strength and conditioning coach, working with the football team that played in bowl games in 1991 and '93. He also handled the conditioning programs for the men's basketball team, in addition to several other sports, including the highly successful baseball and rugby teams.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Barnes served as a graduate assistant at both Texas A&M ('90) and Auburn ('89). He is a 1988 graduate of the University of New York Cortland and received his master's degree in health and human performance from Auburn.

Barnes publishes in professional journals, continues to edit for a popular health and fitness magazine and maintains a health and fitness website. A native of New York, Mike and his wife, Sue, reside in Pleasanton, CA with their son Zachary (6-13-98).

Barnes' coaching background: 1989 (Auburn), 1990 (Texas A & M), 1991-93 (California), 1994-curr. (49ers).

JOE BARRY DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Joe Barry begins his first NFL season as the 49ers Defensive Quality Control coach.

Barry spent the 1999 season coaching linebackers for John Robinson at UNLV. Prior to that, he spent three seasons coaching linebackers and defensive ends at Northern Arizona (1996-98).

A three-year letterwinner at linebacker for USC, Barry was a team co-captain as a senior. Following his graduation, he served two seasons (1994-95) as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Barry's father, Mike, serves as the offensive line coach for the University of Tennessee. His father-in-law, Rod Marinelli, is the offensive line coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Joe, and his wife Christine, reside in Pleasanton with their daughter, Camryn Grace (4-19-99).

Barry's coaching background: 2000 (49ers), 1999 (UNLV), 1996-98 (Northern Arizona), 1994-95 (USC).

TOM BATTÀ TIGHT ENDS

Tom Batta is in his second season with the 49ers as tight ends coach and in his 17th year as an NFL coach.

Batta's 1999 tight ends squad included third-year player Greg Clark, who established career highs in receptions (34) and yards (347), despite missing four games with injuries.

San Francisco represents the fourth team Batta has worked for during his NFL coaching career, which began in 1984 as defensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings. He served as defensive assistant/special teams coach for Bud Grant in 1985 before taking over as tight ends/special teams coach under Jerry Burns from 1986-91. Batta handled special teams on Dennis Green's staff from 1992-93. After a 10-year stint in Minnesota, Batta joined Indianapolis as tight ends/quality control coach from 1994-97. He was quality control coach for Pittsburgh in 1998.

Batta entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Akron University in 1973 after leading Warren Harding High in Warren, OH to a state championship. He moved to Colorado as defensive line coach from 1974-78. He served as defensive coordinator at Kansas (1979-82) and North Carolina State (1983) before jumping to the NFL in 1984.

Before becoming a coach, Batta played three years on the offensive and defensive lines for Kent State from 1961-63. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Kent State and a master's in education at Akron.

Batta was born (10-6-42) in Youngstown, OH. He and his wife, Liz, have two grown sons, Jeff and Tom.

Batta's coaching background: 1973 (Akron), 1974-78 (Colorado), 1979-82 (Kansas), 1983 (North Carolina State), 1984-93 (Minnesota Vikings), 1994-97 (Indianapolis Colts), 1998 (Pittsburgh Steelers), 1999-curr. (49ers).

CHRIS BEAKE DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Chris Beake is in his first year as a defensive assistant coach with the 49ers, following one season as the team's defensive quality control coach. He spent the previous year as a pro personnel assistant with the team.

Beake was a Civil Engineer Officer for the Air Force from 1995-98, designing and managing contract work at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida, among others. While a lieutenant, Beake was a graduate assistant coach for the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, CO, where he assisted the defensive coordinator and helped with the defensive backs from 1994-95. He was a training camp and game day coaching assistant for the Denver Broncos from 1984-89.

A graduate of the Air Force Academy in 1994, Beake earned his bachelor's degree in civil engineering. He received a master's degree in business administration from the University of West Florida in 1997.

Born (9-10-72) in Kansas City, MO, Beake is single and resides in Mountain View, CA.

Beake's coaching background: 1994-95 (Air Force), 1999-curr. (49ers).

DWAINE BOARD DEFENSIVE LINE

One of the 49ers' all-time sack leaders, Dwaine Board is in his 11th season with the team, his seventh as defensive line coach. Board spent four years as the team's defensive line assistant, working primarily with the team's nickel defense and the "elephant" spot, a combination lineman-linebacker, prior to his promotion in February of '94.

DT Bryant Young was the bright spot of Board's 1999 defensive line. Returning to the starting lineup after a career-threatening injury in '98, Young was voted Comeback-Player-of-the-Year by Associated Press and was invited to his second Pro Bowl. His 11.0 sacks in '99 moved Young into fifth place on the 49ers all-time sack list with 48.0. Board also tutored Junior Bryant who displayed versatility by playing both defensive tackle and end.

Under Board's tutelage, the 1998 defensive unit recorded 51.0 sacks to rank second in the NFL. Individual performances included Chris Doleman who tied for second in the NFC and third in the NFL with 15.0 sacks. In 1997 Board was a factor in developing the NFL's Defensive Player-of-the-Year in Dana Stubblefield, who led the team with a career-high 15.0 sacks.

A member of three world championship 49er teams, Board recorded 61.0 career sacks and eight more in the postseason from 1979-88. His four tackles, two sacks and constant pressure in Super Bowl XIX, earned him Defensive Player-of-the-Game honors in San Francisco's 38-16 win over Miami.

A graduate of Franklin County (VA) High, Board was a three-time All-America selection at North Carolina A&T and a fifth-round draft choice of the Steelers in 1979.

Following his release by Pittsburgh, Board signed with the 49ers and registered a team-leading seven sacks as a rookie in '79. He retired following the '88 campaign, after joining the Saints midseason.

Born in Rocky Mount, VA (11-29-56), "Pee Wee" and his wife, Lynne, have three daughters: Camille (6-11-89), Allie (1-21-91), and Tessa Raine (3-22-95). The family lives in Redwood City, CA.

Board's coaching background: 1990-curr. (49ers).

BRUCE DEHAVEN SPECIAL TEAMS

Bruce DeHaven is in his first year with San Francisco. He joins the 49ers coaching staff after spending 13 seasons with the Buffalo Bills.

During his tenure in Buffalo, DeHaven helped develop two of the greatest special teams players in NFL history: Mike Pike and Steve Tasker. Under DeHaven's tutelage, Tasker was invited to seven Pro Bowls as the AFC's Special Teams Player and was voted the 1993 Pro Bowl MVP. His 1991 punt coverage unit led the NFL in fewest punt return yards allowed, the lowest total since the NFL changed the rules allowing only the ends to release on punt coverage when the ball is snapped. DeHaven also guided the Bills' kickoff coverage unit to a #1 ranking in the NFL four consecutive years (1987-90).

Prior to joining the Bills' staff in 1987, DeHaven spent the previous 15 years in various coaching capacities. He spent three seasons with the USFL as running backs and special teams coach with the Orlando Renegades (1985), special teams coach and offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Maulers ('84), and with the New Jersey Generals as special teams and assistant offensive line coach ('83).

DeHaven served as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at New Mexico State University in 1982, before breaking into the pro ranks. From 1979-81, he coached at the University of Kansas, working with the defensive backs, offensive line, as well as heading up the recruiting program. He spent nine years as a high school coach prior to joining the college ranks. As an assistant at Wichita Southeast High School, he helped lead the school to three straight football titles.

Bruce was born in Trousdale, KS (9-6-48). He played eight-man football at Belpre-Trousdale (KS) High School. A graduate of Southwestern College (KS), DeHaven was a basketball standout, leading the team in scoring two consecutive years. He also participated in track and field. Bruce and his wife, Kathy, have a son, Tobin Scott (3-17-97) and a daughter Annie Maude (3-23-99). The family resides in Livermore.

DeHaven's coaching background: 1979-81 (Kansas), 1982 (New Mexico State), 1983 (New Jersey Generals, USFL), 1984 (Pittsburgh Maulers, USFL), 1985 (Orlando Renegades, USFL), 1987-1999 (Buffalo Bills), 2000 (49ers).

GREG KNAPP QUARTERBACKS

Greg Knapp is in his sixth season with the 49ers and third as quarterbacks coach. Knapp spent the previous three years as the team's offensive quality control coach. Knapp works closely with offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg in tutoring the quarterbacks.

The quarterback front had its share of adversity in '99, but Knapp was instrumental in keeping continuity at the position. Steve Young, out for the season in Week 3, was replaced by Jeff Garcia. The former CFL quarterback started 10 games and finished the season with a 77.9 QB rating (225-of-375 passes for 2,544 yards and 11 touchdowns). Garcia closed the '99 season with a QB rating of 131.2, the highest of his career, when he completed 26-of-34 passes for 373 yards and two touchdowns at Atlanta (1-3-00) and posted a 98.3 rating over the final five games, third highest in the NFL.

In 1998, Knapp was instrumental in Steve Young reaching career-highs in touchdown passes (36) and passing yards (4,170). Young also finished the season with a 101.1 quarterback rating, ranking over 100 for the sixth time in his career.

Knapp spent nine years on the coaching staff at Sacramento State University, serving as running backs coach (1986-89), receivers coach (1989-90), and offensive coordinator/assistant head coach (1991-94).

A collegiate quarterback at Sacramento State, he was one of the most prolific signal callers in that school's history. He ranks among the Hornets' career leaders with better than 3,800 passing yards and 32 touchdown passes. He participated in training camps of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1986, the Los Angeles Raiders from 1987-90 and the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-94.

Knapp was born in Long Beach, CA (3-5-63). He and his wife, Starla, have a daughter, Jordan Christine (8-25-95), and live in Los Gatos, CA.

Knapp's coaching background: 1986-94 (Sacramento State); 1995-curr. (49ers).

BRETT MAXIE ASSISTANT SECONDARY

Brett Maxie is in his second year with the 49ers as assistant secondary coach. He joined the 49ers after spending the '98 season as a defensive backs/defensive quality control coach with the Carolina Panthers. Maxie assists Jim Mora in coaching the secondary, as well as other areas of defensive preparation.

A 13-year veteran of the NFL, Maxie spent nine seasons with the New Orleans Saints (1985-93), one with Atlanta ('94), and two with Carolina (1995-96). Maxie was the first player to ever record an interception with Carolina and had a career-high six picks in '95 with the Panthers. Maxie closed his playing career in San Francisco ('97), finishing his career with 23 interceptions.

Maxie graduated in 1985 with a degree in biology from Texas Southern, where he played safety. Maxie originally planned to attend optometry school before signing as an undrafted free agent with New Orleans.

Born (1-13-62) in Dallas, TX, Brett and his wife, Angela, have four children: sons, Brett (7-14-92) and Adam (11-18-93), and daughters, Maya (11-21-95) and Olivia (4-15-97). The family resides in San Jose, CA.

JIM MORA DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Jim Mora is in his fourth year with the 49ers, and second as defensive coordinator. Mora spent the first two years as the 49ers defensive backs coach. Thirteen years prior, he split time between two teams—the San Diego Chargers (1985-91) and the New Orleans Saints (1992-96).

Despite the many line-up changes in his '99 defensive unit, Mora developed two Pro Bowlers (DT Bryant Young and FS Lance Schulters) and tutored his troops to a team-tying record five touchdowns. Young, coming back from a career-threatening broken leg injury (11-30-98), not only was selected to his second Pro Bowl, but was named second-team All-Pro and was named Comeback-Player-of-the-Year by Associated Press. Schulters finished second in the NFC in interceptions (6), and his 127 return yards tied for third in the NFL. His invitation as starting free safety to the Pro Bowl was his first.

Mora's secondary unit tied for first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with 21 interceptions in 1998, including four players who were credited with four picks apiece. During Mora's first season, the 49ers ranked second in the NFL in passing defense and were tied for second in the league with 25 interceptions.

Mora played defensive back for the University of Washington from 1980-83, appearing in two Rose Bowls with the Huskies. Following graduation, he served one season (1984) on Don James' staff as an assistant, helping the squad earn a berth in the Orange Bowl.

In 1985, Mora joined the San Diego Chargers in their pro personnel department before being named a defensive assistant in the secondary from 1986-88. He became the Chargers' defensive backs coach in 1989 and served in that capacity for three seasons.

Mora was named as the secondary coach for the Saints in 1992. During his tenure in New Orleans, the team twice led the NFL in fewest passing yards allowed (1992-93).

Born (11-19-61) in Los Angeles, CA, Mora attended Interlake High in Bellevue, WA. He is the son of Jim Mora, head coach of the Indianapolis Colts (1997-curr.) and former head coach of the Saints from 1986-96. He and wife, Shannon, have three children: Cole (1-7-95), Lillia (8-19-96), and Ryder (1-11-99). The family lives in Los Gatos, CA.

MARTY MORNHINWEG OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Marty Mornhinweg is in his fourth year with the 49ers as the team's offensive coordinator. He spent the previous two years with Green Bay, including the 1996 Super Bowl season, serving as the team's offensive assistant/quality control coach and then as the quarterbacks coach, following Steve Mariucci's departure.

Under Mornhinweg's tutelage, the 49ers offense led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive year with 2,095 yards in 1999. RB Charlie Garner set career-highs in rushing yards (1,229) and receiving yards (535) and ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL with 1,764 yards total offense. Stepping in for the injured Steve Young, QB Jeff Garcia made 10 starts and finished the season with 2,544 yards and 11 touchdowns for a QB rating of 77.9.

Mornhinweg's 1998 offensive unit produced the NFL's top-rated rushing attack, was the league-leader in gross passing yards, and had the second highest total offensive output (6,801 yards) in NFL history. He also helped guide QB Steve Young to career-highs in passing yards (4,170) and touchdowns (36).

Prior to joining the NFL, Mornhinweg accumulated 10 years of collegiate coaching experience. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, where he tutored the University of Montana receivers in 1985. He then served as graduate assistant/quarterbacks coach at Texas-El Paso (1986-87), running backs coach at Northern Arizona (1988), and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Southeast Missouri State University (1989-90). Following his assignment there, Mornhinweg coached slots/tight ends (1991) and the offensive line (1992-93) at the University of Missouri, and then returned to Northern Arizona as offensive coordinator in 1994.

Mornhinweg was a standout quarterback at San Jose's Oak Grove High, where he was coached by former 49ers offensive coordinator and current head coach of the Seattle Seahawks, Mike Holmgren. He established three Northern California and 19 school records and was named Northern California Player-of-the-Year during his prep career. Collegiately, Mornhinweg set 15 school passing records as a four-year starter at the University of Montana.

He was also a camp quarterback with the 49ers in '85 and played quarterback for the Denver Dynamite of the Arena Football League for two games before suffering a season-ending knee injury in 1986.

Born in Edmond, OK (3-29-62), Marty and his wife, Lindsay, have four children: daughters Madison (5-27-91) and Molly Lynn (7-21-95) and sons, Skyler (8-10-93) and Bobby Cade (4-28-99). The family resides in Pleasanton, CA.

Mornhinweg's coaching background: 1985 (Montana), 1986-87 (Texas-El Paso), 1988 (Northern Arizona), 1989-90 (Southeast Missouri State), 1991-93 (Missouri), 1994 (Northern Arizona), 1995-96 (Green Bay Packers), 1997-curr. (49ers).

PATRICK MORRIS OFFENSIVE LINE

Patrick Morris is in his fourth year with the 49ers, his second as offensive line coach. He spent the previous two years as tight ends/assistant offensive line coach.

Despite a season filled with rotating offensive linemen in 1999, Morris' line helped pave the way for RB Charlie Garner to achieve career highs in rushing yards (1,229) and total offense (1,764). Behind this group, the 49ers led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,095 yards.

In 1998, Morris was instrumental in the development of '97 third-round pick TE Greg Clark, who he also coached collegiately at Stanford.

Prior to joining the pro ranks, Morris accumulated 19 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level. He worked at Stanford University (1995-96) coaching the offensive line (tackles and tight ends) prior to joining Steve Mariucci's staff in '97.

A 1976 graduate of the University of Southern California, Morris began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1976-77. After spending one year (1978) at Northern Arizona, Morris coached at the University of Minnesota from 1979-82. He returned to his alma mater and handled offensive line duties from 1983-86. Morris coached the offensive line for eight seasons at Michigan State (1987-94) prior to joining Stanford's staff in 1995.

Morris has been associated with five Rose Bowl victories and two National Championships during his football playing and coaching career: 1973 and '75 Rose Bowls and National Championships as a player at USC, 1977 and '85 Rose Bowls as a coach at USC, and 1988 Rose Bowl as a coach at Michigan State University.

Born in Cleveland, OH (4-7-54), Patrick and his wife, Kathy, reside in Mountain View, CA.

Morris' coaching background: 1976-77 (Southern California), 1978 (Northern Arizona), 1979-82 (Minnesota), 1983-86 (Southern California), 1987-94 (Michigan State), 1995-96 (Stanford), 1997-curr. (49ers).

LESS IS MORE

In 1999, Charlie Garner reached the 1,000-yard mark third fastest in team history. Joe Perry averaged 6.1 yards per carry when he totaled 1,049 yards on 173 carries in 1954, and Roger Craig reached 1,000 yards on his 189th carry in 1988. Garner reached his 1,000th yard on his 191st carry.

TOM RATHMAN RUNNING BACKS

- ORGANIZATION

Tom Rathman is in his fourth year as the 49ers' running backs coach, subsequent to assisting the running backs late in the '96 season. A nine-year veteran of the National Football League, Rathman is considered to be one of the most dedicated and consistent players to ever wear a 49ers' uniform.

Under Rathman's direction in 1999, RB Charlie Garner ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL in total offense (1,764 yards). He set career highs in rushing yards (1,229), receptions (56) and receiving yards (535). Garner also was chosen as second alternate to the Pro Bowl. Rathman also helped develop FB Fred Beasley into an outstanding lead blocker, while establishing career-highs in rushing and receiving. As a group, Rathman's backs led the league in rushing yards (2,095) and yards per carry (5.0).

Rathman's 1998 running back corps ranked first in the NFL with 2,544 rushing yards, also a team record. He tutored Garrison Hearst who accomplished career-highs in every statistical category: rushing (1,570), attempts (310), receiving (535), rushing touchdowns (7), and total touchdowns (9). Hearst's 1,570 rushing yards ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL and secured his first Pro Bowl invitation.

As a player, Rathman helped the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles during his years as a 49er (1986-93). He totaled 4,392 yards from scrimmage and scored 34 touchdowns while playing in 113 games during his 49ers years. He also played one year (1994) with the Los Angeles Raiders.

A four-year letterman at the University of Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged over six yards per carry.

Prior to joining the 49ers staff, Rathman helped rebuild the Menlo College (San Mateo, CA) program by serving as the offensive coordinator in 1996 and coached the running backs at Serra High School (San Mateo) in '95.

Born 10-7-62, Tom is a native of Grand Island, NE. He and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole Christine (10-25-86), Alexandra Elizabeth (2-10-89), and Samantha Lynn (5-11-92). The family lives in Redwood City, CA.

Rathman's coaching background: 1996 (Menlo College), 1996-curr. (49ers).

RICHARD SMITH LINEBACKERS

Richard Smith enters his 13th season as an NFL assistant coach and his fourth as the 49ers' linebackers coach.

Smith's 1999 linebacking corps saw Ken Norton Jr. lead the team in tackles (126), marking his fifth consecutive season with at least 125. Norton also extended his regular season starting streak to 144 games, the longest streak among active linebackers in the NFL.

From 1993-96, Smith helped develop one of the league's top special teams corps in Denver, while assisting with the linebackers for two seasons (1994-95). Prior to coaching in Denver, Smith spent five seasons as special teams coach with the Houston Oilers (1988-92). During his tenure in Houston, Smith's special teams played a key role in helping the Oilers earn five consecutive playoff berths. Smith also assisted with the offensive line ('92), linebackers (1990-91) and tutored the tight ends (1988-89) with the Oilers.

In 1987, Smith spent one year at the University of Arizona coaching special teams and linebackers. Before that he handled special teams and outside linebackers at California (1984-86). From 1981-83, Smith was defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton, helping the Titans win the PCAA title in '83. He began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Rio Hondo (CA) Junior College from 1979-80.

Born (10-17-55) in Los Angeles, CA, Smith played offensive line at Rio Hondo from 1975-76 before transferring to Fresno State in 1977. Smith helped the Bulldogs claim the 1977 PCAA title before graduating with a degree in physical education in '79.

Smith and his wife, Patti, have four children: daughters, Morgan (1-29-81), Aimee (2-24-89), and Whitney (8-23-91), and son, Travis (12-10-85).

GEORGE STEWART WIDE RECEIVERS

George Stewart is in his fifth year with the 49ers, and 12th season as an NFL coach. Stewart makes the transition from special teams to wide receivers.

Considered to be one of the top assistant coaches in the National Football League, Stewart's 1999 special teams corps were highlighted by Wade Richey who led the NFC and was third in the NFL with 17 touchbacks. He hit 21-of-23 (.913) field goal attempts, tops in the NFC, and 30-of-31 (.967) PATs.

In '98 Stewart helped developed Richey into an NFL kicker, as he finished third in the NFL and second in the NFC with 27 touchbacks. Richey also was named Special Teams Player-of-the-Week with three field goals vs. Green Bay in the NFC Wild Card Game. Stewart's 1998 kickoff coverage units improved to second-best in the NFL.

Stewart began his career as special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989-91. He also served double duty in Tampa Bay, handling as the team's tight ends during three of his seasons (1992-94).

His coaching career began under the tutelage of Lou Holtz at Arkansas (1983), where he was a graduate assistant and coached the tight ends. He spent the next two seasons (1984-85) at Minnesota as offensive line coach. He later followed Holtz to Notre Dame (1986-88) before moving into the pro ranks.

An All-American and All-Southwest Conference selection as a guard at Arkansas, Stewart earned a bachelor's degree in business administration. Stewart is a native of Little Rock, AR.

ANDY SUGARMAN OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Andy Sugarman is in his third year with team and his first as offensive assistant. He spent his first two seasons as offensive quality control coach.

Sugarman joined Steve Mariucci's staff after spending seven years (1991-97) as an administrative assistant to the offensive and special teams coaching staff at the University of California, Berkeley. He handles the computer operations (inputting game plans) and holds various on and off the field responsibilities for offense, including assisting wide receiver coach George Stewart. He also coordinates the scout teams for special teams coach Bruce DeHaven.

As a youngster, Sugarman was a Cal team manager while he was a student at Acalanes High School in Lafayette. His younger brother, Adam, is a quarterback at Cal.

Born 5-23-72, Andy is single and resides in San Francisco, CA.

Sugarman's coaching background: 1991-1997 (California), 1998-curr. (49ers).

LINDSY MCLEAN HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Lindsay McLean, who has been an athletic trainer for 39 years, is in his 22nd season with the 49ers.

The team's head trainer since '82, McLean joined the 49ers as co-trainer in 1979, following 11 years as head trainer at the University of Michigan (1968-78).

Besides working with Michigan's athletes (1961-62 and 1968-78), McLean also served as head trainer at UC Santa Barbara (1963-64) and San Jose State (1965-67). He was named United States Collegiate Trainer-of-the-Year in '76.

A Vanderbilt graduate (1960), McLean received his certification in physical therapy from Herman Hospital in Houston, TX in '61. He entered the training profession as an assistant at Michigan prior to joining the UC Santa Barbara staff.

McLean served as chairman of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) Certification Committee for 10 years, was a U.S. Olympic Team trainer for the '76 Winter Games and was inducted into the NATA's Hall of Fame in 1988. He also has served as chairman of NATA's sub-committee for its prestigious Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award.

Additionally, Lindsay has served on the NATA Grants and Scholarship Committee and served on the Fiftieth Anniversary Task Force. He is a charter member of the Far West Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame and is also a member of the Michigan Athletic Trainers' Society Hall of Fame.

Born in Nashville, TN (6-28-38), McLean is single and lives in Redwood City, CA.

TODD LAZENBY ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Todd Lazenby is in his fifth year as assistant athletic trainer. He joined the organization following five years with the HealthSouth Corporation in Orlando, FL, where he was the staff athletic trainer. During his tenure with HealthSouth (1991-95), Lazenby coordinated the HealthSouth golf program, covered high school athletics and treated patients in the clinic. He arrived with familiarity with the 49ers' organization, having worked the team's 1990 training camp.

Prior to joining HealthSouth in 1991, Lazenby served as a graduate assistant on the training staff at Ohio State University in Columbus. While with the Buckeyes, he worked with a number of sports including the football, ice hockey, and men's gymnastics teams, among a host of others.

Lazenby, 33, earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio State in health education and a master's degree in sports management. He is a certified member of the NATA.

He and his wife, Stevie, have a son, Caleb (8-3-95), and a daughter, Lilli (12-10-98). The family lives in Milpitas, CA.

JEFF TANAKA ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Tanaka is in his second year as an assistant athletic trainer. He spent the two previous years at the University of California, Berkeley in the same capacity.

Tanaka served four years in the professional ranks before his tenure at Cal, beginning with a training camp internship with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant with the 49ers (1995-96), before accepting a position as an athletic assistant for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in '97.

After a one-year stint in Amsterdam, Tanaka spent the next three years at Cal, where he was head athletic trainer for men's basketball, the men's and women's swim teams, as well as an assistant for the football team.

Jeff, 29, received a Bachelor's degree in Physical Education from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo in 1994, and is in the process of completing his thesis at San Jose State University. As a student trainer at Cal Poly, Tanaka had experience with all 17 sports for the Mustangs, including football, basketball and women's volleyball. While serving his graduate assistantship through San Jose

State, he was the first athletic trainer at Santa Teresa (CA) High School, where he implemented the program and facility.

Born and raised in San Jose, CA (4-14-71), Tanaka graduated from Branham High School. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers' Association (CATA).

Jeff is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

KEVIN LARTIGUE EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Kevin Lartigue enters his fourth year with the 49ers, his third as the team's equipment manager. Lartigue served as assistant equipment manager in 1997 before being promoted to equipment manager during the '97 off-season. His background includes six years in the equipment department at his alma mater, Michigan State University.

"Tique" gained valuable experience at MSU, having spent the previous two and a half years (1994-97) as assistant equipment manager under Nick Saban. Serving as student manager (1991-94) under the direction of coach George Perles, Lartigue was honored as Student Manager-of-the-Year in 1994.

Lartigue, 32, earned his bachelor's degree in advertising in 1994. A certified equipment manager, Lartigue is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers' Association.

Born (11-16-67) in Lansing, MI, Kevin is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

JIM ABRAMS NORTHEAST REGIONAL SCOUT

Jim Abrams is in his seventh year as a regional scout for the 49ers. He took over the East region in 1994, after spending two seasons as a scouting assistant.

A 1987 graduate of Kent University, Abrams served as a graduate assistant at UNLV (1988), Purdue (1989-90), and Ohio State (1991). At all three schools, he served as linebackers coaching assistant.

Born in Warren, OH (10-12-62), Abrams attended McAteer High in San Francisco before attending City College (1981-82). He later transferred to Kent (1983-87), where he played free safety and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Abrams and his wife, Penny, reside in Skaneateles, NY with their sons, Aleksandr James (8-23-95) and Sedrick Jameson (8-24-99).

JOHN BRUNNER MIDWEST REGIONAL SCOUT

John Brunner is in his 10th season as an area scout for the 49ers.

He has 19 years experience as an NFL assistant coach and scout, including duties with Detroit (running backs coach, 1980-82), Green Bay (running backs coach, 1983), Tampa Bay (offensive coordinator, 1984), New England (scout, 1985-86), and Minnesota (running backs coach, 1987-91).

Brunner played college football at Maryland (1955-56) and East Stroudsburg State (1958-59). After earning his master's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1960, he coached high school and college football for 20 years, holding positions at Middletown (NY) High (1960-66), Villanova (1967-69), Temple (1970-73 & 1977-79), and Princeton (1974-75).

Born in Perkesie, PA (9-6-37), Brunner has seven children: Scott (former NFL quarterback), Jack, Penny, Jan, Jeff, Todd, and Mark. John and his wife, Pat, reside in Clearwater, FL.

BRIAN GARDNER WEST REGIONAL SCOUT

Brian Gardner is in his sixth year with the 49ers as a scout for the West region.

Prior to joining San Francisco in 1995, he spent three seasons as a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 1991, Gardner was a pro personnel director and wide receivers coach for the Washington Marauders of the professional spring football league.

His football background includes time in the Arena Football League with the New Orleans Night franchise as both defensive coordinator and director of football operations. He also was a three-year veteran as a player in the Arena League with New England, Pittsburgh, and New York. He also spent a season in the CFL with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders.

Gardner, 35, is a native of New Orleans. He played college football at Prairie View A&M, where he was a three-year letterman and graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications. Married, he and his wife, Vanessa, have two sons, Royal Jalvia (11-2-95) and Tyler J. (2-27-99), and live in LaPlace, LA.

JIM GRUDEN SOUTHEAST REGIONAL SCOUT

Jim Gruden, a veteran of 32 professional and collegiate football seasons, is in his 15th year with San Francisco.

Gruden came to the 49ers in 1987 following five seasons with Tampa Bay as director of player personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

Born in Cleveland, OH, Jim joined the NFL ranks in '82, after 15 years of assistant collegiate coaching at Heidelberg (OH) College (1966-68), Dayton (1969-72), Indiana (1973-77), and Notre Dame (1978-80). He was with the Fighting Irish during Joe Montana's playing days, and at Dayton he was an assistant coach under John McVay.

Gruden and his wife, Kathy, have three adult sons: Jim (a radiologist in New York City), Jay (the Arena League's all-time leading passer and head coach of the Orlando Predators of the Arena League), and Jon (Oakland Raiders head coach). The couple lives in Tampa, FL.

OSCAR LOFTON SOUTHEAST REGIONAL SCOUT

Oscar Lofton, who joined the 49ers' scouting staff in 1992, begins his ninth season with the club.

His football background includes six years as a scout for the National Football Scouting Combine (1986-92) and coaching stints at Holy Cross College (1963-66), Hammond (LA) High (1967-73), and Tulane (1973-79).

A three-sport athlete in football, basketball, and track at Southeastern Louisiana, Lofton was enshrined into that school's Hall of Fame in 1960. He received his master's degree in physical education in 1966, and served SLU as athletic director (1979) and head coach (1980-85). He played three seasons (1960-61 & '63) for the Boston Patriots, missing the 1962 campaign while in the U.S. Army.

Born in McCall Creek, MS, Lofton and his wife, Billie Jean, have three grown sons (Kelly, Andy, and Kyle) and seven grandchildren. The couple lives in Hammond, LA.

The San Francisco 49ers honored offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick with a ceremony during half time against the Tennessee Titans October 3, 1999. Among those who spoke were former 49er linemen Bubba Paris and Jesse Sapolu, along with General Manager Bill Walsh who is pictured above with McKittrick.

HOT HAND

Jeff Garcia was perhaps the most improved quarterback during the final five games of the 1999 season. The first-year starter ranked third in the NFL with 844 yards passing, trailing only Carolina's Steve Beuerlein (953) and the N.Y. Giants Kerry Collins (886). Garcia's quarterback rating of 98.3 during that stretch ranked third in the NFL. He trailed only Beuerlein (107.1) and the Rams Kurt Warner (105.3). Garcia directed 19 scoring drives, completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just two times for 22 yards over the last five games.

Did You Know...

Travis does not have good luck with fire. When Travis was 13, he started a fire that was about the size of two houses. It was about a 30-foot high pile of pine needles that he had built a fort in. He and some friends started a fire to keep warm and the pile ignited. The fire was covered on the news but no one ever knew who did it. He didn't tell anyone until about eight years later.

Years later, when he was a rookie with Green Bay, he used gasoline to start a fire in his fireplace. The logs exploded and the flames leaped out of the fireplace and ignited him. He had to roll around on the floor to smother the flames. He was just fresh from the shower, and says that saved him from losing most of his hair because it was still damp.

Montgomery was involved in a car accident his rookie year in the NFL. His best friend was in the car with him. His best friend, who was projected to be an NFL draft pick, broke his back and was not supposed to walk again. His friend defied the odds and is able to walk and even run. Montgomery says that he has learned the value of hard work from the incident and is inspired in his career to play for his friend.

MARKED IMPROVEMENT

Jeff Garcia's improvement from his fifth career start to his sixth did not set an NFL record, but it was quite remarkable. The former Canadian League star threw for 39 yards in his last NFL start against Pittsburgh (11-7-00) and jumped to 437 yards in his return to the starting lineup against Cincinnati (12-5-00). The 398-yard increase was the most by an NFL quarterback since Boomer Esiason had a 500-yard improvement from one start to the next in 1996. As a starter for Arizona, Esiason completed 4-of-12 passes for 22 yards and two interceptions against New England (9-15-96) before being replaced. He returned to the starting lineup against Washington (11-10-96) and completed 35-of-59 passes for 522 yards and three touchdowns.

Jeff Garcia threw for 2,544 yards and rushed for 231 in 1999.

TACKLE BOX

Ken Norton Jr. has led the 49ers in tackles in each of his six years with the team. The 12-year veteran paced the team again with 126 tackles in 1999. He has been his team's leader in tackles for eight consecutive seasons (two in Dallas), and has now recorded five consecutive seasons with 100 or more tackles.

ELITE LEADERS

If the 49ers lead the NFL in rushing in 2000, they will become just the second team in league history to lead for three consecutive seasons multiple times. San Francisco led the NFL in rushing from 1952-54. The only team to do it at least three years in a row twice was Chicago (1939-42 and '83-86).

1999 GAME SUMMARIES

VS. JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS

SEPTEMBER 12, 1999 @ ALLTEL STADIUM

LOST 41-3 RECORD 0-1

The 49ers opened the season on the wrong foot as Jacksonville posted a 41-3 victory at Alltel Stadium. Jaguars QB Mark Brunell completed 22-of-30 passes for 265 yards and one touchdown. Jacksonville also received one touchdown each from its special teams and defensive units.

San Francisco led briefly following a 42-yard field goal by K Wade Richey midway through the first quarter. But from that point on it was all Jacksonville. 49ers QB Steve Young had a forgettable day, completing just 9-of-26 passes for 96 yards and two interceptions. QB Jeff Garcia replaced Young late in the game and completed 5-of-9 passes for 45 yards. Garcia's outing was spoiled by a 90-yard interception return for touchdown by CB Aaron Beasley.

The return of DT Bryant Young from a severely broken leg was one of the few highlights for the 49ers. Young started the game and finished with three tackles. P Chad Stanley had a solid outing. The rookie from Stephen F. Austin had eight punts for 372 yards (46.5), including a CAREER-LONG 70-yard effort in the fourth quarter. The punt was the longest for the 49ers since Jim Miller's 80-yard effort in 1982.

CB Mark McMillian, S Lance Schulters and CB Darnell Walker paced the defense with six tackles each. DT Junior Bryant added four tackles and one sack while DE Jeff Posey recorded one sack for eight yards.

VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
SEPTEMBER 19, 1999 @ 3COM PARK
WON 28-21 RECORD 1-1

QB Steve Young survived five sacks and 21 knockdowns to throw two touchdown passes, and S Lance Schulters returned an interception 64 yards for the game-winning touchdown as San Francisco came from behind to beat New Orleans, 28-21, at 3Com Park.

The 49ers jumped to an early 7-0 lead when Young connected with WR Terrell Owens from five-yards out at the 6:08 mark of the first quarter. The scoring toss capped a six-play, 39-yard drive. The highlight of the drive was RB Charlie Garner taking the ball from Young's hands, as Young lay flat on his back after being tripped by a 49er offensive lineman, and picked up 11 yards and a first down.

New Orleans then rallied with two scores on the arm of QB Billy Joe Hobert. Hobert hit WR Eddie Kennison from two yards away to open the second quarter, and just moments later he connected with WR Keith Poole on a 58-yard touchdown pass. San Francisco tied the game on its next possession when FB Tommy Vardell scored the 49ers first rushing touchdown of the season from one-yard out.

The third quarter scoring belonged to the Saints. Hobert led them on an 11-play, 79-yard drive that eclipsed 5:14 off the clock, and was capped by a 12-yard touchdown toss to WR Lawrence Dawsey.

The game's outcome looked bleak for the 49ers late in the fourth quarter until the 49er veterans combined for some game-saving plays. Young, battered and bruised all day, led the team on an 11-play, 62-yard drive that ended in a four-yard touchdown throw to Owens. The drive was kept alive by two key plays. The first belonging to Saints CB Chris Hewitt, whose fourth down helmet-to-helmet blow on Young resulted in a 15-yard roughing the passer penalty and a 49er first down. The second key play of the drive belonged to WR Jerry Rice. On fourth down and 12, Young hit Rice on what appeared to be a 14-yard completion. The play, initially ruled incomplete, was challenged by the 49ers and overturned by the officials.

With the score tied and 1:52 remaining in the game, New Orleans took the ensuing kickoff and had excellent field position following a 35-yard return by RB Troy Davis. Hobert's first down pass to WR Eddie Kennison was incomplete. On second down, Hobert again tried Kennison, but his pass was intercepted by Schulters at the 49ers 36-yard line. Picking up a convoy of teammates, including a crushing block by LB Ken Norton Jr. on Saints RB Ricky Williams, Schulters raced untouched into the end zone for the game-winner.

The 49ers defense was paced by Norton with 12 tackles, including seven solo stops. S Tim McDonald and Schulters each posted nine tackles.

VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS

SEPTEMBER 27, 1999 @ SUN DEVIL STADIUM

WON 24-10 RECORD 2-1

San Francisco jumped to a 17-0 first half lead and held off a resilient Arizona Cardinals team to win 24-10 at Sun Devil Stadium. The win was the ninth consecutive victory on Monday Night for the 49ers and improved head coach Steve Mariucci's MNF record to a perfect 7-0.

The 49ers struck first following a fumbled punt by Cardinals WR David Boston that was recovered by LS Joe Zelenka at the Arizona 37-yard line. Four plays later QB Steve Young hit WR Jerry Rice from 13 yards out to put the 49ers up 7-0.

On the ensuing Cardinal possession, it was the 49ers defense that came up big. S Lance Schulters, who scored on a 64-yard return the previous week, intercepted an errant QB Jake Plummer pass and returned 18 yards to the Cardinals 11-yard line. One play later, RB Charlie Garner scored his first touchdown of the year on a punishing run off left guard. K Wade Richey connected on a 33-yard field goal early in the second quarter to put the 49ers up 17-0 at halftime.

Any enthusiasm the 49ers felt over their lead was dampened just before halftime. Young was hit by a blitzing CB Aeneas Williams. After being hit frontside by Williams, Young fell backward into the knee of a teammate and sustained a concussion on the play. He sat out the second half and was replaced by QB Jeff Garcia.

Arizona put its first points on the board with the opening series of the second half. Plummer led the team on an 11-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Mario Bates. The Cardinals narrowed the 49er lead to seven points with 3:43 remaining in the third quarter on a 43-yard field goal by K Chris Jacke.

The fourth quarter was consumed largely by two lengthy, but ineffective, drives by both teams. The 49ers opened the quarter with a 12-play drive that used up roughly six minutes of gametime and ended in a 49-yard punt by P Chad Stanley and was downed at the Arizona three-yard line.

Arizona, in-turn, held the ball for nearly seven minutes on a 16-play drive that was stymied by two huge plays from the 49ers defensive line. With a first-and-10 situation at the 49ers 39-yard line, DE Marvin Washington stopped RB Adrian Murrell for a six-yard loss. On the next play, DT Bryant Young dropped Plummer for a six-yard sack. The Cardinals would punt and turn the ball over to the 49ers.

The 49ers put the game out of reach when Lawrence Phillips scored on a 68-yard run with just under a minute remaining.

VS. TENNESSEE TITANS
OCTOBER 3, 1999 @ 3COM PARK
WON 24-22 RECORD 3-1

QB Jeff Garcia subbed for the injured Steve Young and accounted for three touchdowns to pace the 49ers in a 24-22 victory over the visiting Tennessee Titans. The win was the third consecutive for San Francisco and marked the 19th consecutive regular season home win.

Tennessee jumped to a 10-0 lead early in the second quarter following a 21-yard K Al Del Greco field goal and a 54-yard screen pass for a touchdown from QB Neil O'Donnell to RB Eddie George. San Francisco put its first points on the board at the 4:04 mark of the second quarter when Garcia capped an eight-play, 65-yard drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. The run was Garcia's first NFL touchdown.

The 49ers special teams unit set up the game's next score. A 32-yard punt return by CB R.W. McQuarters had the team in excellent field position at the Titans 28-yard line. On first down Garcia threw to RB Charlie Garner for seven yards. On the next play, Garcia found Garner streaking down the middle of the field and into the end zone for a 21-yard score and a 14-10 half-time lead.

Tennessee narrowed the 49ers lead to 14-13 at the end of the third quarter on a 22-yard field goal from Del Greco. San Francisco answered four minutes into the final period on a 39-yard effort from K Wade Richey. On the ensuing Titans possession, it was the 49ers defense that came up with a huge play. Driving, and with the ball at the 49ers 24-yard line, O'Donnell dropped back to pass looking for WR Derrick Mason. The ball was tipped away by CB Mark McMillian and intercepted by LB Winfred Tubbs, who returned eight yards.

Taking possession at the 21-yard line, Garner ripped off a 53-yard run down the 49ers sideline to the Titans 36. Three plays later, Garcia threw his second touchdown pass of the day, this time to WR Terrell Owens from 22-yards out in the corner of the end zone for a 24-13 lead.

The Titans responded with Del Greco's third field goal of the day with 3:38 remaining. After forcing San Francisco to punt, Tennessee marched down the field on a six-play, 52-yard drive that ended in a 32-yard scoring toss from O'Donnell to WR Yancey Thigpen. Tennessee went for the two-point conversion, but was stopped when LB Lee Woodall stuffed George for a four-yard loss.

On the day the 49ers defense held the Titans to just 55 yards rushing in 21 attempts, and George was held to just 26 yards in 15 attempts - a 1.7-yard average. Woodall finished with seven solo tackles and one sack. DT Junior Bryant added four solo tackles, including two sacks for 18 yards. McMillian and McQuarters added four stops each.

GAME 5

VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS

OCTOBER 10, 1999 @ TRANS WORLD DOME

LOST 42-20 RECORD 3-2

St. Louis QB Kurt Warner completed 20-of-23 passes for 323 yards and five touchdowns as the Rams notched a 42-20 victory over the 49ers at the TWA Dome in St. Louis. The loss snapped San Francisco's 17-game winning streak against the Rams, which dated back to 1990.

The Rams jumped out to a 21-3 first-quarter lead on the arm of Warner and the capable hands of WR Isaac Bruce. Bruce was the recipient of three first-quarter touchdown passes from Warner, who completed 9-of-9 passes for 177 yards and three touchdowns in the opening period. The 49ers lone points of the quarter came courtesy of a 42-yard K Wade Richey field goal.

The 49ers opened the second quarter with a nine-play, 80-yard scoring drive that cut the score to 21-10. RB Lawrence Phillips capped the drive with a two-yard touchdown run, his second of the season. Two series later, however, the Rams extended their lead to 28-10 when Warner connected with TE James Robinson from 22 yards out for his fourth touchdown pass of the half.

San Francisco answered with a big play from its defensive unit. After a 53-yard punt by P Chad Stanley pinned the Rams at their nine-yard line, a blitzing S Tim McDonald forced a Warner fumble. The ball was recovered by DT Junior Bryant in the end zone for a touchdown and the Rams lead was trimmed to 28-17.

The 49ers cut further into the deficit with 1:42 remaining in the third quarter following an 11-play, 67-yard drive that ended in a 43-yard Richey field goal. But on the ensuing kickoff, the Rams answered with a devastating 97-yard touchdown return that pushed the lead to 35-20. Warner and Bruce would connect for their fourth touchdown of the day in the final quarter to make the final tally, 42-20.

RB Charlie Garner had another solid all-around day for the 49ers, finishing with 109 yards of total offense, including 57 yards receiving. WR Terrell Owens paced the squad with six receptions for 60 yards.

GAME 6 VS. CAROLINA PANTHERS OCTOBER 17, 1999 @ 3COM PARK LOST 31-29 RECORD 3-3

CB Darnell Walker and CB Mark McMillian each scored touchdowns for the 49ers defense, but it was not enough as the Carolina Panthers ended San Francisco's 20-game regular season home winning streak. Carolina QB Steve Beuerlein completed 23-of-36 passes for 300 yards and four touchdowns on the afternoon.

San Francisco jumped to a 6-0 first-quarter lead on two K Wade Richey field goals, but the lead proved to be short-lived as the Carolina erupted for 24 second-quarter points. The Panthers opened their scoring on a 19-yard field goal by K John Kasay. After Richey's third field goal of the day, Carolina responded with a seven-play, 80-yard drive that ended in a seven-yard touchdown pass from Beuerlein to WR Patrick Jeffers.

The 49ers responded moments later when Walker stepped in front of a Beuerlein pass intended for WR Eric Metcalf and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown and a 16-10 49ers lead. On the ensuing kickoff the Panthers special teams answered with a 72-yard return from KR Michael Bates. Two plays later Beuerlein hit WR Mushin Muhammed from 22-yards out to retake the lead, 17-16.

Lightning struck again quickly for the Panthers on the next 49ers possession. Panthers LB Kevin Greene recovered a fumble by RB Charlie Garner at the 49ers 25-yard line. Wasting no time, Beuerlein hit TE Wesley Walls streaking down the middle of the field for his third touchdown of the quarter.

Carolina extended its lead to 31-16 in the third quarter following a 33-yard touchdown pass from Beuerlein to Jeffers. The 49ers defense added their second score of the day in the fourth quarter. DE Junior Bryant forced a fumble of RB Tshimanga Biakabutuka. The ball was then scooped up by McMillian who raced 41 yards and dove into the end zone for the touchdown with 8:59 remaining.

After forcing the Panthers to punt, the 49ers got the ball back with 4:05 left in the game. A 17-yard return by CB R.W. McQuarters had San Francisco at its own 37-yard line. Eleven plays and 63 yards later, QB Jeff Garcia connected with WR Jerry Rice for an 11-yard score that trimmed the Carolina lead to two points, 31-29. That would prove to be the final score as the 49ers two-point pass attempt went incomplete.

GAME 7
VS. MINNESOTA VIKINGS
OCTOBER 24, 1999 @ METRODOME
LOST 40-16 RECORD 3-4

The Minnesota Vikings, behind 250 yards and three touchdowns from QB Jeff George, handed the 49ers their fourth loss of the season, 40-16, at the Metrodome. The loss extended the 49ers losing streak to three games - their longest streak since 1980.

San Francisco kept the game close in the first half on a pair of K Wade Richey field goals and a 71-yard fumble return for touchdown by CB Darnell Walker. It was the second consecutive week that Walker scored a defensive touchdown.

Trailing 24-13 at halftime, the 49ers opened the third quarter with a 15-play, 72-yard drive that ended with Richey's third field goal of the day, this one from 26 yards out, that cut the Vikings lead to 24-16. Minnesota promptly answered with a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive that made the score 31-16, and effectively put the game out of reach for San Francisco.

QB Jeff Garcia, making his fourth consecutive start for the injured Steve Young, completed 14-of-31 passes for 188 yards. WR Jerry Rice caught a team-high five passes, while RB Lawrence Phillips and TE Greg Clark caught three passes each.

LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the defensive efforts with eight tackles. CB Pierson Prioleau added eight stops and DT Bryant Young added three tackles, including one sack for 10 yards.

GAME 8
VS. PITTSBURGH STEELERS
NOVEMBER 7, 1999 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 27-6 RECORD 3-5

RB Charlie Garner rushed for a CAREER-HIGH 166 yards on 20 carries, but it was not enough as the 49ers dropped their fourth consecutive game, 27-6, to the visiting Pittsburgh Steelers at a windy, rainy 3Com Park.

After forcing the 49ers to punt on their opening possession, Pittsburgh took over at their own 31-yard line. Eight plays and 69 yards later, RB Jerome Bettis punched over from one-yard out to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead.

The 49ers responded on the ensuing kickoff with a 75-yard return by RB Lawrence Phillips. Five plays later, K Wade Richey connected on a 19-yard field goal to put the 49ers on the scoreboard. The San Francisco momentum was short-lived as the Steelers answered with a four-play, 60-yard scoring drive that ended in a 13-yard scoring toss from QB Kordell Stewart to WR Hines Ward.

The second quarter saw both teams exchange field goals. K Kris Brown nailed a 28-yard effort to extend the Steelers lead, and Richey responded with his second of the day to make the halftime score 17-6 in favor of Pittsburgh. Brown added another field goal late in the third quarter and Bettis put the game away with a 22-yard scoring run with 3:15 remaining in the contest.

Despite the loss, San Francisco posted their best team rushing effort of the season. The squad totaled 223 yards on 34 carries—an impressive average of 6.6 yards per carry on the day. FB Fred Beasley had five carries for 25 yards and also caught one pass for nine yards. Eight different receivers caught passes for the 49ers but were limited to just 93 yards.

The 49ers defensive effort was paced by S Tim McDonald with eight tackles on the day. LB Winfred Tubbs and LB Lee Woodall added five tackles each and combined for the only 49ers sack. CB Pierson Prioleau added four stops and one pass defended in his first NFL start.

GAME 9
VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
NOVEMBER 14, 1999 @ LOUISIANA SUPERDOME
LOST 24-6 RECORD 3-6

QB Steve Stenstrom made his first start in a 49ers uniform and completed 18-of-32 passes for 157 yards, as San Francisco dropped its fifth straight loss to division rival New Orleans, 24-6.

New Orleans started the scoring early with a two-yard run by QB Billy Joe Tolliver on the Saints' first drive of the game. San Francisco answered with a 40-yard drive that ended with a K Wade Richey field goal. The 52-yard field goal was a CAREER-LONG for Richey, and the sixth longest in 49ers team history.

The Saints extended their lead to 14-3 on another two-yard run by Tolliver. Richey hit his second field goal with :37 remaining in the half, to cut the New Orleans lead to 14-6. The 22-yard field goal capped a 68-yard drive that saw Stenstrom connect on four consecutive passes.

The second half belonged to the Saints. On their first drive of the half, Tolliver hit WR Andre Hastings for an 11-yard score. The final points of the contest came on a 28-yard field goal by K Doug Brien, capping an eight-play, 61-yard drive.

RB Charlie Garner posted a 12-carry, 60-yard effort in New Orleans. WR Terrell Owens was the 49ers' leading receiver for the game, finishing with five catches for 56 yards.

LB Winfred Tubbs paced the 49ers with 10 tackles. S Zack Bronson, starting in place of the injured Lance Schulters (ankle), and LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles apiece, while DT Bryant Young had two sacks to go with his four tackles.

GAME 10
VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
NOVEMBER 21, 1999 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 23-7 RECORD 3-7

The 49ers ended one streak, but were unable to snap out of the most important one in losing 23-7 to the visiting St. Louis Rams. The 49ers scored an offensive touchdown for the first time in four games, but it was not enough as they dropped their sixth consecutive contest.

The game opened with the Rams drawing first blood thanks to a 40-yard field goal by K. Jeff Wilkins with 4:47 remaining in the first quarter. San Francisco took the lead midway through the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by FB Fred Beasley. The touchdown was the first of Beasley's career and the first for San Francisco since QB Jeff Garcia hit WR Jerry Rice in the end zone against the Carolina Panthers on October 17.

The 49ers lead proved to be short-lived, however, as the Rams answered immediately with a 10-play, 71-yard drive. The five-minute series ended with a five-yard scoring pass from QB Kurt Warner to WR Isaac Bruce. St. Louis extended their lead to 13-7, on a 20-yard field goal from Wilkins as time expired in the first half.

In the third quarter it was the Rams defense that made its presence known. San Francisco QB Steve Stenstrom's intended pass to TE Greg Clark was tipped at the line of scrimmage and intercepted by LB Mike Jones who raced 44 yards for the touchdown. Wilkins would later add a third field goal to make the final score, 23-7.

San Francisco was paced offensively by WR Terrell Owens, who had six receptions for 120 yards. RB Charlie Garner added a team-high 77 yards rushing on 16 carries. Stenstrom completed 7-of-12 passes for 108 yards and one interception before being replaced by Garcia in the third quarter. Garcia finished the game 8-of-15 for 89 yards and two interceptions.

The 49ers defensive effort was paced by CB Ramos McDonald and CB Monty Montgomery, who were making their first starts for San Francisco. McDonald recorded a TEAM-HIGH eight tackles and two passes defended, while Montgomery added six tackles and one pass breakup. LB Winfred Tubbs recorded five tackles and one sack.

VS. GREEN BAY PACKERS

NOVEMBER 29, 1999 @ 3COM PARK

RECORD 3-8

Green Bay QB Brett Favre completed 25-of-36 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns to lead the visiting Packers over the San Francisco 49ers, 20-3, at 3Com Park. The loss was the seventh consecutive for San Francisco.

The 49ers opened the scoring early in the second quarter. K Wade Richey capped an eight-play, 77-yard drive with a 35-yard field goal to put San Francisco ahead, 3-0. The lead was short-lived, however, as Favre led the Packers on a six-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 13-yard touchdown toss to WR Corey Bradford. Green Bay extended their lead to 10-3 just before half-time on a 23-yard field goal by K Ryan Longwell.

In the third quarter, Favre tossed his second touchdown of the day when he connected with TE Tyrone Davis on a 10-yard strike. Longwell later added a 22-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter for the final score of the game.

San Francisco was paced offensively by the play of RB Charlie Garner, who rushed 15 times for a game-high 90 yards, including a 36-yard outburst in the first quarter setting up the 35-yard field goal by Richey. Garner also caught a CAREER-HIGH six receptions for 36 yards, breaking his previous best of five set against New Orleans (9-19).

Also having a solid day offensively was FB Fred Beasley. The second-year player out of Auburn established a pair of CAREER-HIGHS with eight carries for 47 yards—an average of 5.9 per carry. He also recorded three receptions for 26 yards on the day.

San Francisco lost more than just the game against the Packers. CB R.W. McQuarters was lost for 4-6 weeks with a broken scapula suffered in the second quarter while returning a kickoff. Starting CB Monty Montgomery also was lost for 4-6 weeks after breaking his right radius, while making his seventh tackle of the game in the fourth quarter.

LB Winfred Tubbs and S Tim McDonald contributed nine tackles each for the 49ers defense. DT Junior Bryant added six tackles, including one sack for seven yards.

CINCINNATI BENGALS*DECEMBER 5, 1999 @ CINERGY FIELD*LOST 44-30*RECORD 3-9

QB Jeff Garcia had a CAREER day for San Francisco, completing 33-of-49 passes for 437 yards and three touchdowns, but the effort was not enough to overcome a four-touchdown performance from Bengals QB Jeff Blake in a 44-30 defeat at Cinergy Field.

Cincinnati jumped out to a 10-0 first-quarter lead after a 10-yard scoring run by RB Corey Dillon and a 29-yard field goal by K Doug Pelfrey.

The second quarter proved to be a high scoring one with the teams combining for five scoring drives. San Francisco put its first points of the game on the board at the 12:39 mark. A nine-play, 60-yard drive was capped when RB Charlie Garner scored his second touchdown of the season on a six-yard run. The Bengals answered immediately with a six-play, 76-yard drive on their ensuing possession. Blake completed 4-of-4 passes for 58 yards on the drive, including an 11-yard toss in the corner to WR Carl Pickens for the touchdown.

K Wade Richey then capped a nine-play, 41-yard drive by the 49ers with a 47-yard field goal to pull San Francisco within seven points, 17-10. On their next series, Cincinnati responded with a quick-strike, four-play, 73-yard drive that consisted largely of a 58-yard touchdown pass from Blake to WR Darnay Scott. Pelfrey added his second field goal of the game with a 24-yard effort as time expired before halftime.

The second half opened in explosive fashion for the 49ers. Taking possession at his own 31-yard line, Garcia calmly directed an 11-play, 69-yard drive that eclipsed just over five minutes off the clock. Garner rushed three times for 20 yards and caught one pass for 14 yards in the series. The drive was capped with a seven-yard strike from Garcia to WR Jerry Rice for the touchdown.

Cincinnati answered with a field goal, but San Francisco struck immediately on a 55-yard touchdown from Garcia to Rice. Rice's second touchdown of the day pulled San Francisco to within six points, 30-24 with 4:49 remaining in the third quarter. Unfortunately for San Francisco, the momentum didn't stay on its side very long. KR Tremaine Mack returned the following kickoff 72 yards to the San Francisco 26-yard line. Three plays later Blake lobbed a screen pass to Dillon, who strode untouched into the end zone for a 37-24 lead.

Undaunted, the 49ers marched 60 yards in the next three minutes to pull back within a touchdown at 37-30, following an 11-yard touchdown from Garcia to WR J.J. Stokes. Again the Bengals showed their resolve by answering the 49ers score with another of their own. Blake and Pickens connected on their second touchdown of the day for the game's final score.

Lost in the game's outcome were some fantastic individual performances for the 49ers. Rice finished the day with nine receptions for 157 yards and two touchdowns. It was the first 100-yard game of the season for Rice and the 65th of his career. WR Terrell Owens had a CAREER-HIGH nine receptions for 145 yards. Garcia's 437 yards passing were the sixth most in team history, and his three touchdowns tied his CAREER-HIGH.

GAME 13 VS. ATLANTA FALCONS DECEMBER 12, 1999 @ 3COM PARK WON 26-7 RECORD 4-9

Behind a dominating performance from the defensive unit and a turnover-free game from the offensive side, the San Francisco 49ers ended their longest losing streak since 1980 with a 26-7 defeat of the visiting Atlanta Falcons.

The 49ers scored first on an eight-yard run by RB Charlie Garner with just under one minute remaining in the first quarter. In the second quarter, it was the 49ers defense that came up with a big play. With Atlanta driving and the ball at the 49ers eight-yard line, S Tim McDonald intercepted a deflected pass intended for WR Terance Mathis in the end zone. Taking over at the 20-yard line, QB Jeff Garcia calmly directed a 14-play, 80-yard scoring drive that eclipsed 8:14 off the clock. The drive was capped when FB Fred Beasley scored the first of his two touchdowns on the day, this one from two yards out that put San Francisco ahead, 14-0.

On the Falcons next possession, it was again the 49ers defense contributing with a big play. With a first-and-10 from the 10-yard line, Atlanta RB Winslow Oliver rushed for a one-yard gain. On second down, QB Chris Chandler was sacked by DE Jeff Posey and DT Bryant Young for an eight-yard loss. Now at third-and-17 from the three-yard line, Chandler again dropped back to pass and was sacked by Young for a safety.

Taking advantage of good field position following the Atlanta free kick, Garcia again directed the 49ers on a scoring drive. The eight-play, 41-yard drive was capped by a 23-yard field goal from K Wade Richey that gave San Francisco a 19-0 halftime lead.

The Falcons put their only points of the game on the board midway through the third quarter.

49ers P Chad Stanley kicked 39 yards where it was picked up by Oliver, who then returned it 58 yards up the sideline for a touchdown. Stanley received a concussion on the play after being blindsided by Falcons WR Jammi German on the return. The 49ers added their final score of the day early in the fourth quarter on a one-yard plunge by Beasley.

Offensively, the 49ers were paced by Garner's 169 yards of total offense, including 107 yards on the ground. Garcia was an effective 16-of-24 for 160 yards.

The real story of the day belonged to the San Francisco defense. They limited the Falcons to 105 yards of total offense—the fewest allowed by the 49ers since holding the Rams to 105 (9-8-96). LB Ken Norton Jr. posted a team-high seven stops, including one sack for 10 yards. Young added two sacks on the afternoon, and DE Charles Haley recorded the 100th sack of his career.

VS. CAROLINA PANTHERS

DECEMBER 18, 1999 @ ERICSSON STADIUM

LOST 41-24 RECORD 4-10

San Francisco QB Jeff Garcia completed 29-of-46 passes for 303 yards and two touchdowns, but the 49ers could not contain Panthers QB Steve Beuerlein in a 41-24 defeat in Charlotte. Beuerlein completed 27-of-38 passes for 368 yards and four touchdowns, including tossing three scoring strikes to WR Muhsin Muhammad. Muhammad finished the day with 11 receptions for 126 yards.

Carolina set the tone of the day early, scoring on the game's opening possession. The five-play, 75-yard drive was capped by an eight-yard scoring strike to Muhammad. The 49ers answered with a 37-yard field goal by K Wade Richey that was set-up by a 58-yard kickoff return from CB Roell Preston.

The Panthers responded to the 49ers score with another Beuerlein-to-Muhammad touchdown pass, this one from 14 yards out as their lead stretched to 14-3. A 21-yard field goal by K Richie Cunningham extended the lead until Garcia connected with WR Jerry Rice on a 48-yard bomb to bring the 49ers within seven points at the end of the first quarter. The touchdown was the 180th of Rice's career.

The second quarter featured just one score, but it came from the Panthers. Former San Francisco FB William Floyd capped a six-play, 65-yard drive with a one-yard plunge that put Carolina ahead, 24-10, at halftime.

The third quarter began in sparkling fashion for San Francisco. Facing a third-and-one from the Panthers 44-yard line, FB Fred Beasley took the handoff and raced 44 yards off left tackle for his longest career touchdown. The play capped an 80-yard drive and pulled the 49ers within a touchdown, at 24-17. The momentum was short-lived as Beuerlein again displayed his hot hand, and this time it had fatal results. With a third-and-10 at their own 45-yard line, Beuerlein zipped a pass to WR Patrick Jeffers over the outstretched arms of a 49er defender and ran 55 yards for the touchdown. A 43-yard field goal by Cunningham extended the lead to 34-17.

San Francisco added its final score of the afternoon on a 17-yard pass from Garcia to RB Charlie Garner. Garner finished the day with nine receptions for 62 yards to go along with his 39 yards rushing. The Panthers also added another score midway through the fourth quarter on a seven-yard toss from Beuerlein to Muhammad.

The 49ers defensive effort was led by LB Ken Norton Jr., who posted a game-high 11 tackles and one pass defended. S Lance Schulters recorded 10 stops, while CB Pierson Prioleau and LB Winfred Tubbs added seven tackles each.

GAME 15
VS. WASHINGTON REDSKINS
DECEMBER 26, 1999 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 26-20 RECORD 4-11

RB Charlie Garner rushed for 129 yards and one touchdown, and DT Bryant Young recorded two sacks, but their efforts could not overcome a 471-yard passing performance from Redskins QB Brad Johnson in a 26-20 overtime loss at 3Com Park.

Things looked good early on for San Francisco as they jumped to a quick 7-0 lead on their first possession. QB Jeff Garcia completed three passes to WR Jerry Rice in the drive and calmly led the 49ers down to the Redskins' four-yard line. From there, Garner capped the 13-play, 80-yard drive by punching one across the goal line for his fourth rushing score of the year.

Washington answered early in the second quarter on a 65-yard touchdown pass from Johnson to WR Michael Westbrook. San Francisco responded with a pair of field goals (29, 25) from K Wade Richey to take a 13-7 lead into halftime.

The Redskins cut the 49ers lead to 13-10 with a 47-yard field goal by K Brett Conway early in the third quarter. On their next possession, the 49ers pushed their lead to 10 points, following a five-yard touchdown pass from Garcia to WR J.J. Stokes. Unfortunately for the 49ers, their scoring would end with that play.

A 34-yard field goal by Conway early in the fourth pulled the Redskins to within seven, 20-13, with 14:04 remaining. Johnson pulled the Redskins even with just over three minutes left on a one-yard plunge that sent the game into overtime.

After winning the coin toss, the Redskins took the kickoff and began at their own 22-yard line. A quick 25-yard pass from Johnson to RB Skip Hicks had them near midfield. Another eight-yard toss to Hicks was followed by a 12-yard run by FB Larry Centers that had the Redskins at the 49ers' 33-yard line. On the next play, the Redskins caught the 49ers in a blitz, and Johnson lobbed a pass to Centers who then raced untouched into the end zone.

Garcia finished the game with 168 yards passing and one touchdown after completing 17-of-30 passes. Rice paced the receiving corps with five receptions for 44 yards, including his 1,200th career reception. TE Greg Clark caught four passes for a team-high 46 yards and FB Fred Beasley rushed a CAREER-HIGH 12 times for a CAREER-HIGH 65 yards.

The defensive unit was paced by Young, who finished with three tackles, including two sacks that upped his season total to 11.0. LB Lee Woodall recorded seven tackles to go along with one sack. LB Ken Norton Jr. added 10 tackles and CB Ramos McDonald posted five tackles and one interception.

GAME 16
VS. ATLANTA FALCONS
JANUARY 3, 2000 @ GEORGIA DOME
LOST 34-29 RECORD 4-12

QB Jeff Garcia completed 26-of-34 passes for 373 yards and two touchdowns, as the 49ers closed out the 1999 season with a 34-29 loss to the Atlanta Falcons on Monday Night Football. San Francisco rallied from 31-7 down in the third quarter to close Atlanta's lead to five points, but the comeback fell short when Garcia's last-second Hail Mary was batted down in the end zone.

Falcons' WR Tim Dwight had a career day, catching seven passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns. He also returned a punt 70 yards for a touchdown. Dwight started the scoring for the Falcons on their first drive of the game, catching a five-yard pass from QB Chris Chandler, who finished the evening 19-of-37 for 306 yards and three touchdowns. The 49ers responded with a touchdown of their own when Garcia found WR Terrell Owens in the end zone from four yards out to start the second quarter.

The game remained tied at seven until the end of the second quarter when the Falcons capped a seven-play, 22-yard drive with a 49-yard field goal by K Morten Anderson. Atlanta took a 17-7 lead into halftime after Dwight returned a 49ers punt 70 yards for his second touchdown of the evening.

The Falcons' opened the second half with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Chandler to WR Terance Mathis. Atlanta pushed their lead to 31-7 with Dwight's third and final touchdown of the evening that was scored on a 60-yard pass from Chandler. On the next possession the 49ers began their comeback. RB Travis Jervey scored from one-yard out for his first touchdown of the season. On the two-point conversion try, the 49ers succeeded when Garcia found Stokes in the end zone to convert the attempt to end an eight-play, 83-yard drive.

After Atlanta started the fourth quarter with a 38-yard field goal by Anderson, Garcia engineered a six-play, 80-yard drive and capped it with a five-yard touchdown run to cut the Atlanta lead to 34-22. The key play in the drive was a 62-yard reception by WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers defense then forced the Falcons to punt on their next drive, which led to another score for San Francisco. Taking the ball at their own 15-yard line, the 49ers marched 85 yards and Garcia found Stokes in the end zone from 43-yards out for the score. With :20 remaining in the game, the 49ers got the ball on their own two-yard line. After a 41-yard completion from Garcia-to-Rice and a nine-yard pass to Stokes, San Francisco had one last shot for the win with :06 remaining. Garcia attempted the Hail Mary pass to the end zone, but his pass to Stokes was broken up.

Rice posted his second 100-yard receiving performance of the season with six catches for 143 yards. It was his 66th-career 100-yard receiving game. Stokes also had a big night, catching five passes for a CAREER-HIGH 130 yards and one touchdown. It was his fourth career 100-yard receiving game and his first of the season.

On the defensive side, LB Winfred Tubbs had a team-high eight tackles. DT Brentson Buckner and LB Ken Norton Jr. added seven tackles apiece.

RAIDER RIVALRY

There are two cross-town rivalries in the NFL and each has a life span of just eight games. The New York Jets and Giants have played each other eight times since 1970, while the 49ers and Raiders have met eight times during that same stretch. The 49ers and Raiders will square off for the ninth time Sunday, October 8. It will be just the fourth regular season meeting as cross-town rivals, San Francisco faced Oakland in 1970, '74 and '79. The 49ers played the Los Angeles Raiders in 1982, '85, '88, '91 and '94.

HAT TRICK AND THEN SOME

Young finished his career with 27 three-touchdown games and a record of 24-3 in those games. He threw four touchdowns in a game nine times and the 49ers went 9-0 in those games.

49ers owner Denise DeBartolo York and Steve Young embrace during his retirement ceremony.

THREE'S COMPANY

Of the players who have reached the 30,000-yard passing mark in NFL history, none have a higher yards per attempt average than Steve Young's 7.98. Johnny Unitas averaged 7.76 yards and Dan Fouts finished at 7.68 yards per pass.

THAT SUPER SEASON

In 1994, Young truly completed a dream season. He led the 49ers to a 13-3 record during the regular season and then on to a breakthrough victory over the Dallas Cowboys in the NFC Championship Game. He then went on to set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes in San Francisco's 49-26 victory over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX.

His Super Bowl MVP honor capped a season in which he set the NFL record with a 112.8 passer rating while completing 70.3 percent of his passes, the third best mark all-time, and earning Associated Press NFL MVP honors.

SELECT COMPANY

After setting a team-record with 4,170 yards passing in 1998, Young became the sixth player in league history to reach the 4,000-yard passing mark multiple times. He joined Dan Marino, Dan Fouts, Warren Moon, Brett Favre and Drew Bledsoe.

WHAT SOME PEOPLE SAY ABOUT STEVE YOUNG

San Francisco 49ers General Manager Bill Walsh

"Steve was the greatest player of the decade and the most exciting in all of football. He is the top rated passer of all-time and the greatest athlete ever to play the position. He is a great person and a true representative of the spirit of the sport. I am privileged to have associated and worked with him. He joins an elite group of Hall of Fame caliber players to be a part of the greatest dynasty in the history of professional football. Steve Young will always be a 49er."

Dallas Cowboys Quarterback Troy Aikman

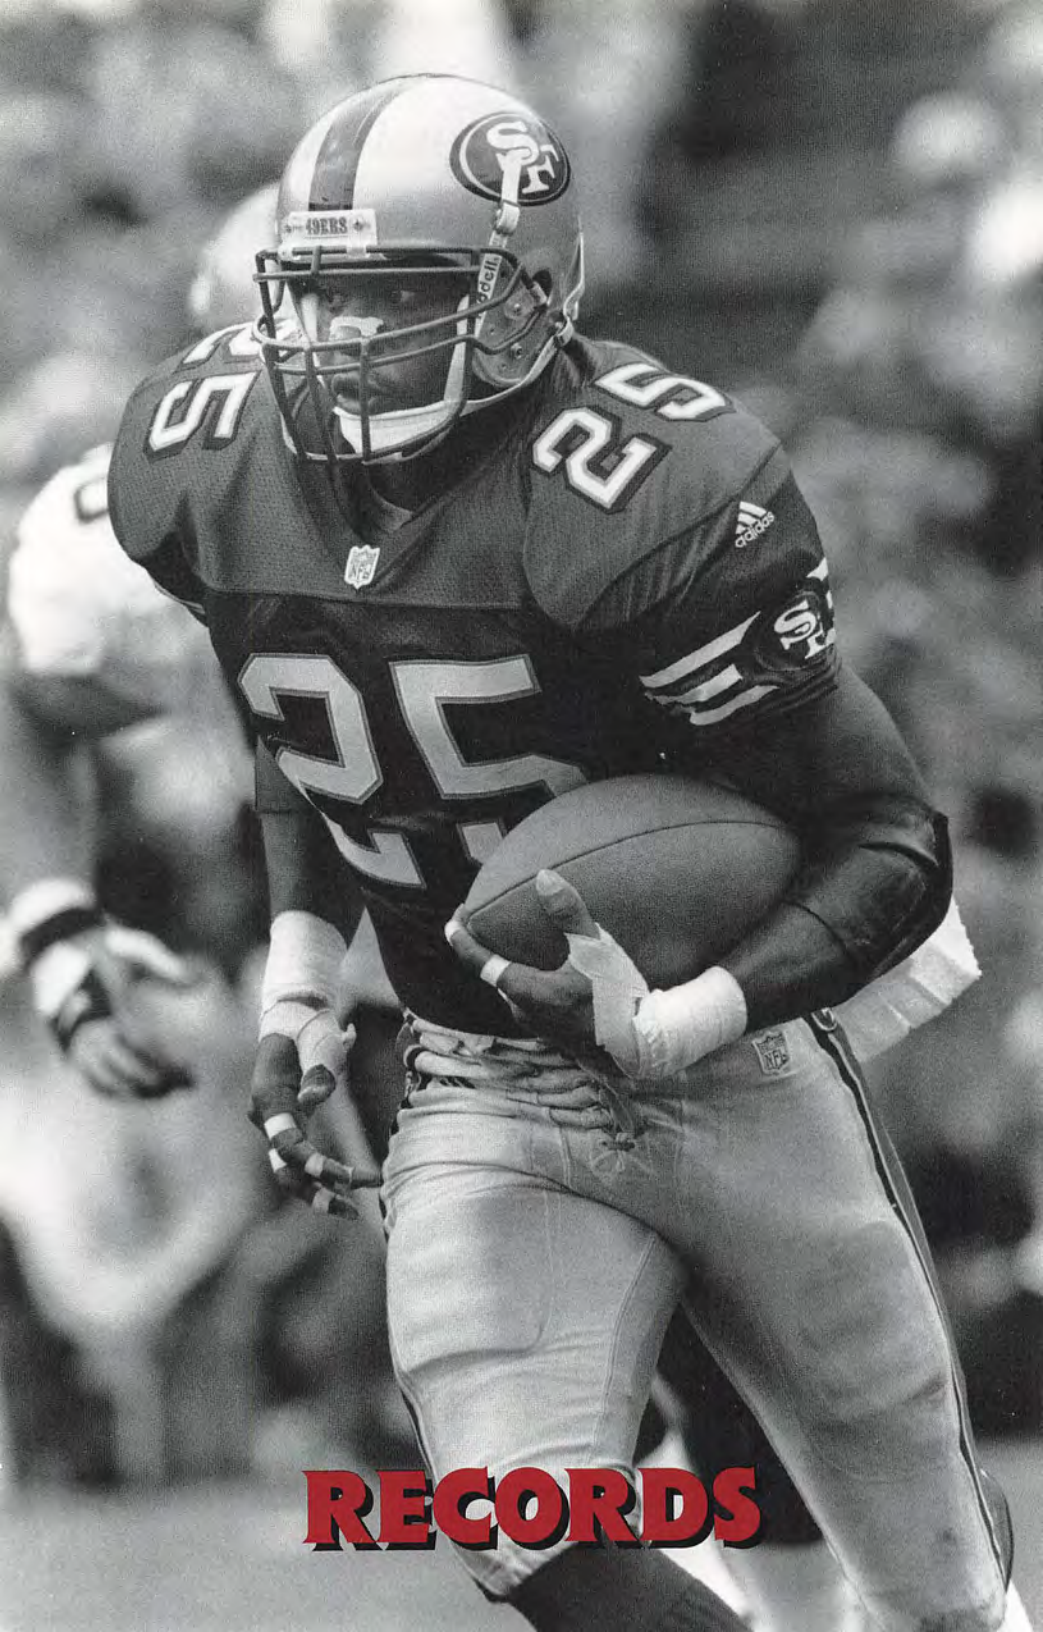

"The thing that impressed me most about Steve—throughout his career—was the way he handled himself in the face of unique, and very difficult challenges. Rarely does a guy step into the fire of replacing a hall of fame quarterback and handle the job with the confidence and poise of Steve Young. It's even more rare for that individual to go on to produce a Hall of Fame career of his own. His persistence and his tenacity were always his greatest virtues. I know how important the Super Bowl season of 1994 was to Steve. After disappointments in '92 and '93, he displayed the type of character and leadership that was not going to allow himself—or his team—to be denied. That championship season—and all that he battled through to get to that point—exemplified to me what Steve Young is all about. I will miss his passion for the game, his love of competition and the personal pride he took in playing a very difficult position at a very high level. I wish him nothing but the best with his new family in the years to come."

Denver Broncos Head Coach Mike Shanahan

"Steve Young is one of the great people I've ever been around. What do I think of Steve Young? I think he's one of the five greatest quarterbacks to ever play the game. What do I think of Steve Young? I think he could be a U.S. Senator. I think he could be the President of the United States. That is what I think of Steve Young."

Former Miami Dolphins Quarterback Dan Marino

"I've known Steve for a long time, and even though I know he will miss the competition on game-day, I'm happy that he made the decision that was best for him and his family. He was a winner in everything he did, and he leaves behind the legacy of a champion. I want to wish him the best of luck in his retirement."

Team Record

-GARNER JOINS HEAVYWEIGHT COMPANY-

Charlie Garner became the fifth running back since 1988 weighing less than 190 pounds to record a 1,000-yard rushing season. His 1,229 yards in 1999 were the second most by a "small" running back since 1986. Napoleon Kaufman rushed for 1,294 in 1997. The numbers are all based on actual media guide bios.

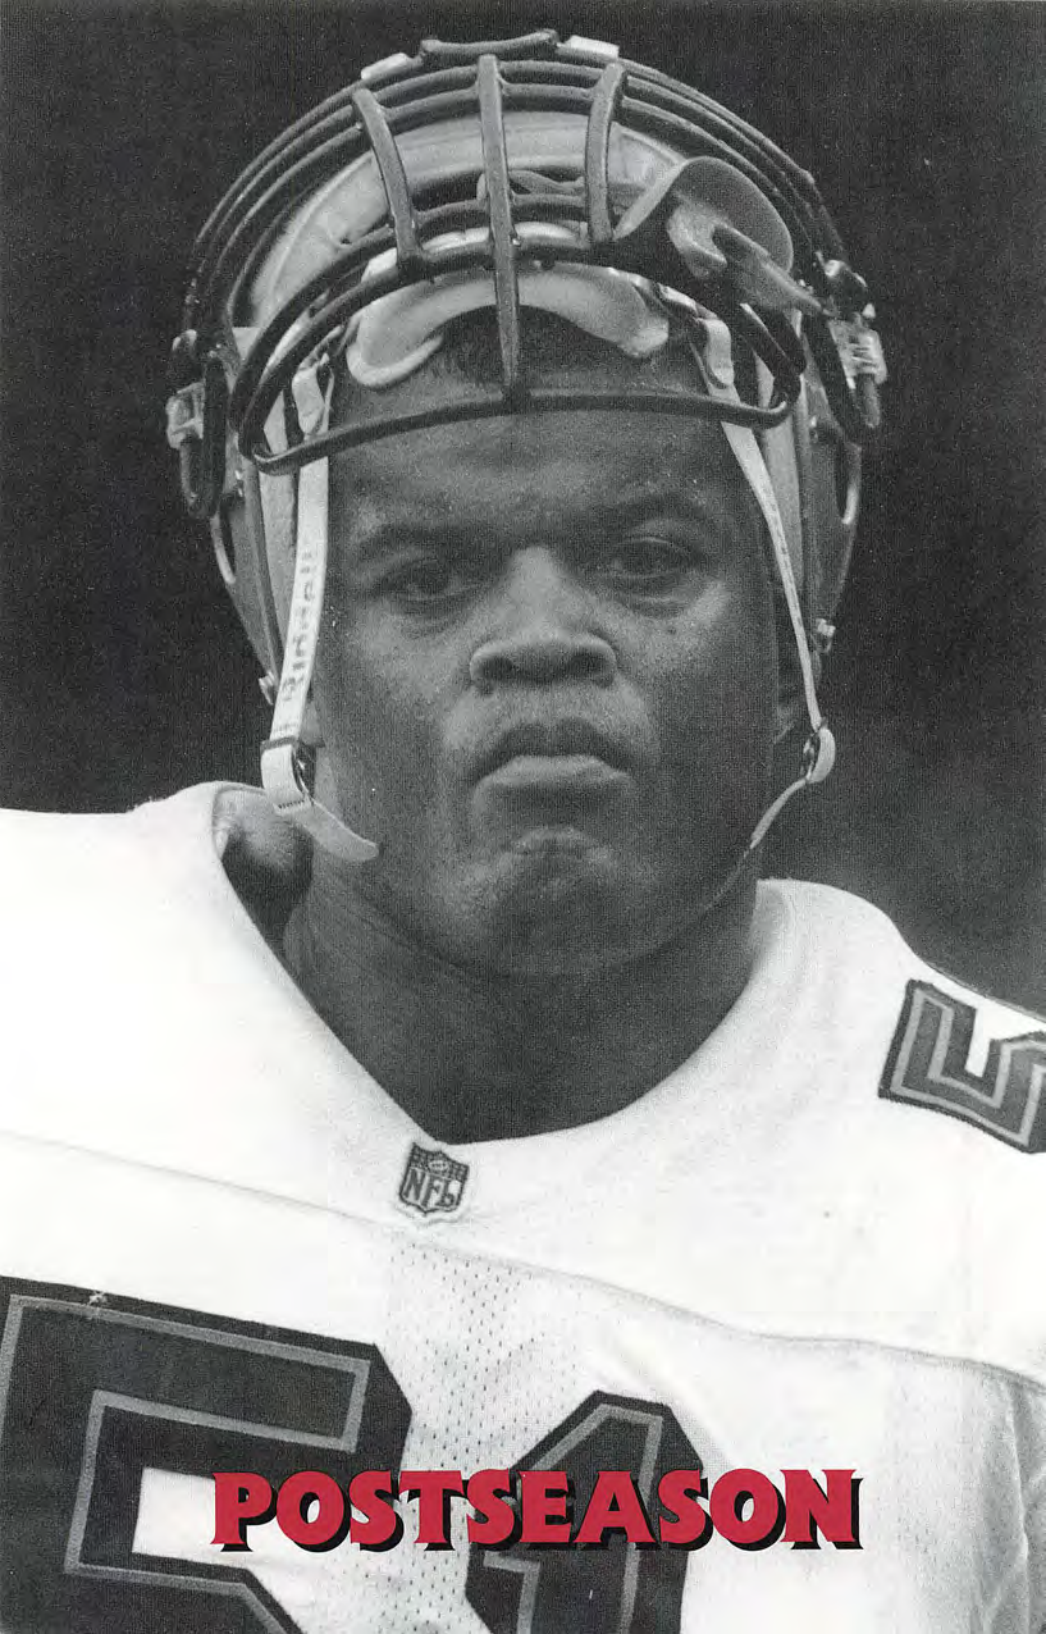

1988 - Gary Anderson (San Diego) 6-1, 180 - Rushed for 1,168 yards and four touchdowns on 297 carries.

1989 - James Brooks (Cincinnati) 5-10, 180 - Rushed for 1,004 yards and five touchdowns on 195 carries.

1997 - Napoleon Kaufman (Oakland) 5-9, 180 - Rushed for 1,294 yards and six touchdowns on 272 carries.

1998 - Warrick Dunn (Tampa Bay) 5-8, 180 - Rushed for 1,026 yards and two touchdowns on 245 carries.

GROUND GAME

The 49ers have been difficult to beat in the postseason when they get their running game going. San Francisco is 22-4 when rushing for more than 100 yards and 8-0 when going over the 150-yard mark in the postseason. The 49ers are 19-2 when carrying the ball 30 times-or-more during the playoffs.

49ERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

'57 Detroit Lions 31, 49ers 27 NFL Divisional Playoff December 22 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco makes their first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but come up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium.

QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18-of-31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34-yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game-high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

NFC Divisional Playoff

December 26 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10-of-19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24-20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park.

Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78-yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10-10. On the next 49er possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two-yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17-10 lead.

The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 28NFC Divisional PlayoffDecember 23 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30-28 come-from-behind win over the 49ers.

Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20-yard touchdown with one 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside-kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner.

The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97-yard touchdown return of the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns.

LB Ed Beard led the Niner defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

49ers 38, New York Giants 24NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 3 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted their first post-season win since 1971 with a 38-24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants.

Aiding the 49er cause was CB Ronnie Lott who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles.

Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana who completed 20-of-31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charle Young on an eight-yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58-yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27NFC Championship*January 10 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting ending for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28-27.

QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock.

Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark had one of his finest days, posting eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

CB Carlton Williamson led the defensive charge with 12 tackles. LB Jack Reynolds added nine stops and DT Archie Reese added six.

49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21Super Bowl XVI*January 24 at Silverdome (Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20-0 lead at the half and held on for a 26-21 victory over the Bengals for their first Super Bowl Championship.

Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards.

Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards.

The 49er defense kept the potent Bengal attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach.

LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49er defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21NFC ChampionshipJanuary 8 at RFK Stadium (Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24-21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium.

The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21-0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49er possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21-14.

The Redskins were three and out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season.

Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 passes for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles, and linebackers Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

49ers 21, New York Giants 10

December 29 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship with a 21-10 win over the New York Giants.

San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark on a 21-yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12-yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine-yard strike to extend the lead to 14-0.

New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return of a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29-yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21-10.

DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49er defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

49ers 23, Chicago Bears 0

NFC Championship

January 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco advanced to Super Bowl XIX with a 23-0 win over the visiting Chicago Bears. The story of the day was the 49er defense that recorded nine sacks and held the Bears to 186 yards of total offense.

Leading the charge for the defense were DE Gary Johnson and DT Michael Carter. Neither Johnson nor Carter were starters in the game, yet they led the squad with two sacks and six tackles each. LB Riki Ellison recorded a team-high eight tackles.

Offensively, San Francisco was led by QB Joe Montana and RB Wendell Tyler. Montana threw for 233 yards and one touchdown, a 10-yard toss to WR Freddie Solomon in the fourth quarter. Tyler had 68 yards on 10 carries, and he scored on a nine-yard jaunt early in the third quarter.

*49ers 38, Miami Dolphins 16
Super Bowl XIX
January 20 at Stanford Stadium (Palo Alto, CA)*

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38-16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts Montana was named as the Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans.

Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33-yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight-yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second, and on the next 49er possession Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six-yard run.

His fourth and final score of the day came on a 16-yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and adding two scores.

San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards.

S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36-24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears.

Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times.

San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12-of-17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 72 yards on six carries and had a five-yard touchdown run.

S Jeff Fuller established a new 49er postseason record when he returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. LB Mike Walter posted nine tackles and S Ronnie Lott added eight.

49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 1 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34-9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick.

Rice set a record with three touchdown receptions that he shares with five other players. He scored on receptions of 2, 4 and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards.

Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74-yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns.

The 49er defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defended. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

49ers 28, Chicago Bears 3NFC ChampionshipJanuary 8 at Soldier Field (Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26-below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28-3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61-yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27-yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14-3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21-3.

FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four-yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards.

The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass.

Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns and Montana completed 17-of-27 passes for 288 yards.

49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16Super Bowl XXIIIJanuary 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco their third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last.

The game opened as a tight-knit affair with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie.

The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown drought. Following a 49er field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown.

An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 left on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight-yard line. What happened next is the stuff of legend.

Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had their third Super Bowl title of the decade.

49ers 41, Minnesota Vikings 13NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41-13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park.

The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early.

Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven-yard gain into a 72-yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the rout was on.

Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17-of-24 passes for 241 yards.

The 49er defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for the touchdown.

49ers 30, Los Angeles Rams 3

January 14 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

The 49er defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned their fourth trip to the Super Bowl this decade with a 30-3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship.

San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49er offense, completing 26-of-30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20-yard strike to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead.

CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27-yard line. A five-play drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig.

It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor.

K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half.

Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

49ers 55, Denver Broncos 10

Super Bowl XXIV

January 28 at Louisiana Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA.

Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards.

The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22-of-29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49er offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards.

The 49er defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

'90 49ers 28, Washington Redskins 10

January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22-of-31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship with a 28-10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins.

The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10-7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters.

Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to cap a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco their first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21-10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard.

It was the 49er defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown.

CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49er defense.

New York Giants 15, 49ers 13NFC ChampionshipJanuary 20 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr to defeat the 49ers 15-13. The Giant defense was just that, holding the 49ers to 39 yards on the ground.

In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49er K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6-6 tie.

San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13-6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr.

Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13-12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at their own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49er fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giant 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49er 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired.

Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20-13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park.

Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16-yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17-3 lead at halftime.

The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49er lead to 17-13. The locals responded with a 14-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining.

The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on their final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs.

DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niner defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team-high six stops in the victory.

Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 20

January 17 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24-of-34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30-20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park.

Dallas opened the scoring on a 20-yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one-yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7-3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10-7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer.

FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three-yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17-10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16-yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24-13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93-yard drive resulting in a five-yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboy lead to 24-20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70-yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six-yard touchdown to secure the win.

Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25-of-35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown.

CB Eric Davis had six tackles to lead the 49er defense. S Dana Hall, CB Don Griffin and LB Bill Romanowski added five tackles each. DT Ted Washington and DE Kevin Fagan had two sacks each for San Francisco.

49ers 44, New York Giants 3

January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

It was a watered down 49er attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single-game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44-3 win over the visiting New York Giants.

Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team-high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17-of-22 passes for 226 yards in the victory.

The 49er defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, including 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team-high five tackles.

The game was marked by several milestone events:

- Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken).
- 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game.
- Watters sets NFL single-game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

Dallas Cowboys 38, 49ers 21

January 23 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7-7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter, and that proved to be the difference in their 38-21 win over the visiting 49ers.

The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmitt Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven-yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21-point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead.

San Francisco scored their second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with a four-yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42-yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50-yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Young, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27-of-45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 38 yards. Watters added 37 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown.

LB Michael Walter led the 49er defense with eight tackles. He was joined by S Merton Hanks and DT Dennis Brown who had seven stops each.

'94 49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15

January 7 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt as many as three times in an NFL playoff game.

The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away.

San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears' next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play.

The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters.

LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single-game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris' two.

'94 49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28

January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into a touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38-28 NFC Championship win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park-record 69,143 (since broken).

On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin, and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers' RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21-0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter.

Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a score that cut it to 21-7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards (24-7), RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63-yard drive with a four-yard run that narrowed the gap to 24-24. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With :08 remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28-yard score, giving the 49ers a 21-14 lead heading into the locker room.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13-of-29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defended, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26

Super Bowl XXIX

January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego.

San Francisco wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard as it took it just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers' end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike.

Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play.

The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10.

The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17
NFC Divisional Playoff
January 6 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27-17 at 3Com Park.

A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers' one-year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11-6.

Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining.

The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, the score coming when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was nine-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with :50 remaining in the game.

Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40-yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions.

Defensively, T Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0
NFC Wild Card
December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game.

Led by its marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship game, the 49ers advanced to the Divisional Playoff round.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Young took the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt.

Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the end-zone by Niners' interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five-yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage.

The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners' second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage.

Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing.

The Niners' defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 unassisted tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14

January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

A total of five turnovers and missed opportunities spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of 9) and driving rain.

It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0.

San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers' special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers' four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers' fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers' drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game.

Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Elvis completed 19-of-36 for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 yards receiving.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

'97 49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22 NFC Divisional Playoff January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns in leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park.

In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown.

San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings' 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd crashed over from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on the afternoon on a one-yard plunge. Then the game-breaker occurred two plays later. After the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket, he threw over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone.

In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-yard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Then Young hit WR Terrell Owens, with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender, then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run.

CB Tyrone Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defended to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

'97 Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10 NFC Championship January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park.

The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on their first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed 3-of-4 passes for 37 yards in the series.

Green Bay continued their scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0.

San Francisco then broke the drought on a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packer territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down and 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packer 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson.

Green Bay answered on their next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packer 27. Two plays later Favre hit Freeman for a 40-yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3.

After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended their lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added on seven more after a five-yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3.

San Francisco closed out the game scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. The Levy return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972.

Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27

January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27.

The 49ers forced three Green Bay turnovers and racked up 178 yards rushing, including 128 yards on 22 carries by RB Garrison Hearst, but still needed last-second heroics to defeat their rival and nemesis.

On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens, and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one-yard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead.

Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. The score capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens howled into the end zone from two yards out. The extra point by Longwell was good and Green Bay took a 17-10 halftime lead.

The third quarter opened with another big play from the 49ers defense. With Green Bay driving at their own 41-yard line, DE Charles Haley pressured Favre into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall, who returned 17 yards to the Packer 33-yard line. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight-yards out for the score.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a TEAM-POSTSEASON RECORD and CAREER-LONG 48-yard field goal from Richey. The kick capped an 11-play, 48-yard drive that took 5:33 off the clock.

In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48-yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at their own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game.

The Packer touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers' history. San Francisco took possession at their own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to their credit. From there Young would lead the team on a drive for the ages. Young opened the drive with completions of 17 and nine yards to WR J.J. Stokes. His third straight completion was for three yards to FB Marc Edwards, who broke three tackles to pick up a first down. After using the first timeout, Young threw incomplete to Stokes and then had a six-yard completion to WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers second timeout was followed by a nine-yard completion to RB Terry Kirby who ran out of bounds at the Green Bay 32-yard line. A seven-yard completion to RB Garrison Hearst was followed by the 49ers final timeout with 14 seconds remaining on the clock. After the timeout, Young passed incomplete to Stokes and eight seconds remained on the clock. On the next play Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

CB Marquez Pope and Woodall paced the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Woodall also recorded an interception and had two passes defensed. DT Brentson Buckner added six tackles, while LB Ken Norton Jr. and DT Junior Bryant recorded five stops each. CB Darnell Walker added an interception.

'98 Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18 NFC Divisional Playoff January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading running game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground.

Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82-yard drive.

San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 19th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards, to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining.

San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left.

After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's Hail Mary attempt was intercepted as time expired.

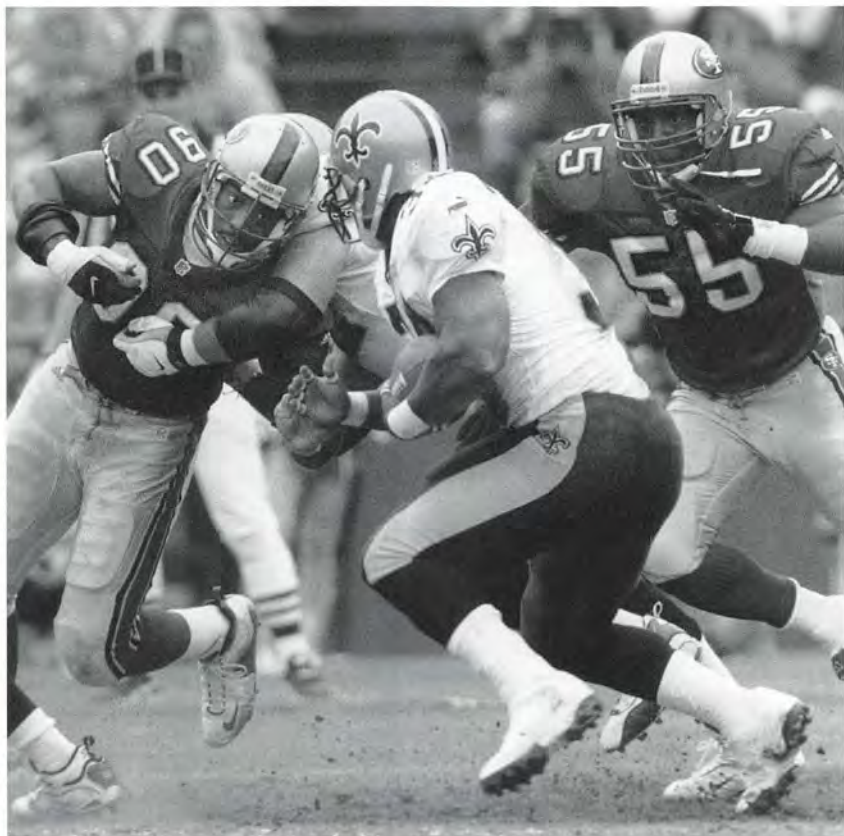

After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

SUPER BLOW-OUT

In five Super Bowl appearances, the 49ers have averaged 37.6 points per game while allowing 17.8. The 19.8 average margin of victory is the largest by a team with multiple Super Bowl appearances. Green Bay's 19.3 average margin of victory in three Super Bowls ranks second, while Oakland's 11.3 margin is third. The Chicago Bears have a 36.0-point margin after beating New England, 46-10, in their lone Super Bowl berth.

49ERS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

(NFL 1949-00)

Following are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1949 - December 10 the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950 - The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 - In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952 - After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become Player-of-the-Year and the most feared runner in football.

1953 - The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9-3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 - The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4-0-1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955 - With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second-worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956 - In QB Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid-season with a 1-6 record. They went 4-0-1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 - This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a "cliffhanger" and the "Alley Oop" pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, after holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 - An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. QB Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 - With Howard W. (Red) Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 - Howard W. (Red) Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his "shotgun attack" and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30-22 upset of Baltimore.

1961 - The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially a 49-0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the "T" formation and had the finest season in 49er QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 - For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 - A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1965 - Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL. E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran

Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially a 49-0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the "T" formation and had the finest season in 49er QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 - For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 - A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964 - Club chief executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 record.

1965 - Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL. E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran

HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7-6-1 record included a season-opening 52-24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 - After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 - An auspicious start (5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968 - Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 - Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4-8-2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970 - This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10-3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. In a season of superlatives, QB John Brodie was the NFL'S PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC COACH-OF-THE-YEAR. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971 - The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972 - Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on 49er prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20-17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973 - In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974 - The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6-8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 - A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. High point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first-ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976 - A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 - In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5-9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978 - The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979 - The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve Deberg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage, and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 - In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at .645 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 - It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16-3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers), and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach-of-the-Year award and all seven NFL Coach-of-the-Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott, and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All-Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean, Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year (NFL Players Association), and NFC Defensive Player-of-the-Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15-12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 - As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro (and NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated). LB Keena Turner (second team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300+ yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 - For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (3rd best regular season victory total in club history) and Western Division Champions (5th time since 1970, 2nd time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17½), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team record 126 points, including a perfect 51 of 51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving) and RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving), and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 - The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners' secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985 - At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC Rookie-of-the-Year and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on pick-off returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action: QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 - The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners' history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed.

WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide-out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 - The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with :34 remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade, and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners' single season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27).

WR Jerry Rice went on to a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota; the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago; and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor, and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989 - George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third world championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia.

Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre, and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season, and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions.

Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player-of-the-Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set an NFL single season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award.

Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest.

The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win.

The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive world championship. The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records, and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990 - The Niners finished the season with an NFL-best 14-2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15-13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl.

In addition to recording the NFL's best won-loss mark for the second straight season (14-2), the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983-84, 1986-90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91.

QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 SPORTSMAN-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC), and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference.

On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14.

The defensive side of the ball was led by LB-DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops.

A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506.

The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship game.

After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City, and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process.

WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club, and league history, taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches.

Rice finished the campaign as the No. 3 pass receiver in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions.

QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories.

On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78), and passes defended (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3).

LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history.

San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre, and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play in the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992 - The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14-2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons.

In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20-13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30-20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (Nov. 29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (Dec. 6).

QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL's Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year.

RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defended.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56-17, Oct. 18).

San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. Rice, Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters, and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play on the islands, and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993 - The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were a 10-6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories; the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons; and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game.

In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records.

The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a club-record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single-season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and then set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five TD outburst vs. the New York Giants.

WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by the Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles.

Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994 - The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL-record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16-3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd.

Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher to various injuries.

Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park.

The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-1 and win the Super Bowl.

Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers' offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

WR Jerry Rice set a team record 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for TDs (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995 - San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October 29 New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury.

Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3).

San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for TDs at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners' Pro Bowl defensive players.

Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular-season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate.

One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami.

Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996 - One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12-4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense.

Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for

1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season.

As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997 - Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season.

Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the off-season. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards, RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49er running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49er defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks, DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by the Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

1998 - Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also was a team-record and a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl Selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999 - San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover.

Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for quarterbacks Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a CAREER-HIGH 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards.

San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per rush average of 5.0.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and earned Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000 - San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances.

UNDRAFTED SUCCESS

The 49ers have had some success with undrafted players over the last three years, including one undrafted starter. T Dave Fiore was signed as an undrafted free agent in 1996 and starts at left tackle. S Zack Bronson made the team after going undrafted in 1997 and has played in 42 games, including three starts. DE Jeff Posey went unselected in 1998 and is developing as a pass rush specialist and made six starts last season at defensive end. The 49ers found four undrafted players good enough to stick on the roster last season in T Dan Dercher, P Chad Stanley, LB Joe Wesley and LS Joe Zelenka. In fact, San Francisco's entire kicking battery was undrafted. K Wade Richey was signed by Seattle out of LSU and later waived. The 49ers picked him up in 1998.

49ERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Leo Nomellini

1969-DT Leo Nomellini (1950-63). Was the first-ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, and counting ten trips to the Pro Bowl, Nomellini played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All-NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19, 1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969-FB Joe Perry (1948-60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961-62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, Arkansas.

1970-HB Hugh McElhenny (1952-60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42-yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952, McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touchdowns in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), New York Giants (1963), and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Hugh McElhenny

1971-QB Y.A. Tittle (1951-60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valuable Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career-high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948-50) and the New York Giants (1961-64). Played college ball at Louisiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, Texas.

Y. A. Tittle

1987-FB John Henry Johnson (1954-56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Backfield" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, including 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957-59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960-65), and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

Bob St. Clair

1990-T Bob St. Clair (1953-63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal-line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when blocking a punt. Earned All-NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appearances. Attended San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

Bill Walsh

Jimmy Johnson

1994-CB Jimmy Johnson (1961-76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five INTs his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962, he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, Texas.

Joe Montana

Ronnie Lott

Dave Wilcox

2000-QB Joe Montana (1979-94). Solidified his place in professional sports annals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all time with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.3 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, Pennsylvania.

2000-DB Ronnie Lott (1981-94). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Championships. Earned All-Pro honors at three different positions, cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks fifth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All-time team, 1980's All-Decade team and Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

2000-LB Dave Wilcox (1964-74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard-nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980-99), the San Francisco 49ers established itself as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20-year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

OVERTIME GAMES

Oct. 31, 1976 - St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14-13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on their previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20-14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown pass for the 20-20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss and was forced to punt. On San Francisco's first drive running back Tony Leonard fumbled at the 43-yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched downfield to set up Jim Bakken for the 21-yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23-20 victory.

Dec. 5, 1976 - San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

In a battle of Northern and Southern California, the San Francisco 49ers and San Diego Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued in the second half and remained 0-0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7-6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offside. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike-Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line, and Fouts promptly guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13-7 win.

Nov. 13, 1977 - San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first-ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime, but a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the touchdown. The 49ers tied the score in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team could score at the end of the third quarter or in the fourth, and the game went in to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss but were unable to move the ball and were forced to give the ball back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from their own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints' 16-yard line where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

Sept. 14, 1980 - San Francisco 24, St. Louis 21

San Francisco struck on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Paul Hofer in the second quarter. Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart quickly answered back with a 13-yard touchdown strike to Theotis Brown. The Cardinals pushed the lead to 14-7 with a Doug Marsh five-yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers tied the game at 14, St. Louis drove 75 yards in eight plays to take a 21-14 lead. With 1:51 left in regulation, the 49ers drove 80 yards and scored on a 26-yard touchdown run by Hofer, his second of the day. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line, where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal for the 24-21 win.

Dec. 7, 1980 - San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35-7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88-yard, nine-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven-yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss and failed to pick up a first down on their first possession. San Francisco took the ball on their own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the 36-yard winning field goal by Ray Wersching.

Oct. 12, 1986 - Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45-yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter the Vikings' Irsiac Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14-7 lead. San Francisco took a 17-14 lead into halftime after a 39-yard Ray Wersching field goal, and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson in the third quarter to cut the 49ers lead to 24-17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and elected to receive. They promptly went on a 58-yard drive, and Nelson hit a 28-yard field goal for the 27-24 win.

Oct. 19, 1986 - Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took a 7-0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco took the lead again in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10-3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime and could not produce a score, and the game ended in a 10-10 tie.

October 9, 1988 - Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter-conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10-3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes left in the quarter, cutting the 49ers lead to 10-6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13-6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 13 with 6:23 remaining. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession of overtime, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play, he threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers take over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

Dec. 9, 1990 - San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium, as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass. San Francisco answered back on their next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the third. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one-yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled, and they did not receive the ball back until there was 4:11 remaining in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won their first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer for the 23-yard game-winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

Jan. 3, 1994 - Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. On their second possession, Young led the 49ers on a seven-play, 46-yard drive capped by a Mike Cofer 30-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. The Eagles quickly got the ball back on a punt after a three-and-out series by the 49ers. Brister guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at the half. San Francisco started the second half strong, beginning with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38 yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on their own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards in just over four minutes and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive; they failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove down to San Francisco's 20-yard line, and with four seconds showing on the clock, set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

Oct. 14, 1996 - Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on a Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. Green Bay received the ball on their own 44 and drove 21 yards to set up Jacke for a 53-yard field goal for the 23-20 victory.

Nov. 10, 1996 - Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on their next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. In 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game-winning 29-yard field goal for the 20-17 victory.

Nov. 24 1996 - San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19- and 48-yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41-yards out to give Washington a 9-6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44-yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78-yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one-yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19-16 win.

Sept. 6 1998 - San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast-paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17-14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six-yards out for the score with :32 left in the second quarter. On their first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22-yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21-yard touchdown and a 24-17 lead. With just over three minutes left in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14-yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked, and the score remained 24-23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended their lead to 27-23 after a John Hall 32-yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76-yard, five-play drive that was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30-27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove down to the 49ers 13-yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three-and-out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to midfield on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four-yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of their second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96-yard, game-winning touchdown run and the 36-30 victory.

Dec. 6, 1998 - San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended their winning streak to four games with an exciting high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, covering 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays, and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third play, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. The 49ers picked up 25 yards on the possession and drove down to the Panthers five, where Wade Richey hit a 23-yard field goal for the 31-28 victory.

Dec. 26, 1999 - Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of their own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins to within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard out to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute remaining, driving down to the Redskins 22-yard line, before a fumble, which Washington recovered, to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. On first down, Brad Johnson hit Larry Centers for a 33-yard touchdown pass and the 26-20 win.

Over the final six games of the 1999 season, the 49ers had one of the most productive offensive lines in the NFL. San Francisco allowed just seven sacks to rank as the fourth fewest allowed in the league over that time. The Colts (4), Cowboys (5) and Jets (5) were the only teams to allow fewer. During that time the 49ers averaged 419.8 yards in total offense, including 151 yards rushing and 268.8 yards passing per game. The 49ers produced 2,519 yards, including two 500-yard games over the last six which is the best output in the NFL during that span.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.

Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.

Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.

Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.

Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.

Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.

Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).

Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.

Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).

Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.

Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.

Axilla - The armpit.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for bending the elbow.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle which upon contraction results in straightening a joint.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide fascial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

Spleen - Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylolisthesis - Forward displacement of one lumbar vertebra.

Spondylosis - Abnormal vertebrae fixation or immobility.

Sprain - A joint injury. A violent twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

Stinger - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck.

Strain - A muscle injury. The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or a tendon.

Stress X-Ray - A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum to see if the ligaments are intact.

Stress Fracture - A hair-line type of break in bone caused by overuse.

Stretching - Any therapeutic maneuver designed to lengthen (elongate) pathologically shortened soft-tissue structures and thereby increase range of motion.

Subluxation - Partial dislocation of a joint. Term usually implies that joint can return to normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid - Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or inner lining of the joint.

Synovitis - Inflammation of the synovium.

Tarsus - Arch of foot.

Tendinitis - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, often caused by chronic overuse and/or sudden injury.

Tendon - Fibrous tissue that connects muscles to other structures.

Tennis Elbow - General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tibia - Larger of the two bones in lower leg; weight-bearing bone.

Tomograph - A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates the organ or tissue is a particular depth.

Trachea - The windpipe.

Trapezius - A flat triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps - Muscle of the posterior upper arm, opposite the biceps, that extends the elbow.

Turf Toe - Sprain of the metatarsophalangeal (MTP) joint of the great toe.

Ulna - One of two bones in forearm; extends from point of elbow and found on outer (little finger) side.

Ulnar Nerve - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing or repeated trauma.

Wrist - The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT TERMS

ACCRUED SEASON

A player receives one accrued season when he is on full pay status for a total of six or more regular season games. This does not include players placed on the Exempt Commissioner Permission List, the Reserve PUP List as a result of a non-football injury, or the practice squad.

RESTRICTED FREE AGENT

Any veteran player with less than four accrued seasons in a Capped Year is considered a restricted free agent at the expiration of his Player Contract. Any such player is free to negotiate and sign with any team, but is restricted under the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. In order to receive right of first refusal and/or draft choice compensation the prior club must tender the player a qualifying offer on or before the first date of the restricted free agent signing period.

UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT

Any player with four or more accrued seasons in a Capped Year becomes an unrestricted free agent at the expiration of his Player Contract. Any such player is completely free to negotiate and sign a Player Contract with any team.

EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS FREE AGENT

Any player with less than three accrued seasons in a Capped Year whose contract has expired may negotiate or sign a Player Contract only with his prior club, if his prior club tenders the player at least a one-year contract at or above the minimum salary applicable to that player. If the prior club does not make or withdraws the required tender by that date, the player is free to negotiate and sign a contract with any club.

FRANCHISE PLAYER

Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a franchise player. The designation restricts the player from negotiating or signing a contract with another club. The designation will remain with that player for the duration of the contract signed. It may be removed by the club at the conclusion of the contract. Franchise players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL Player Contract for the average of the five largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120% of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

TRANSITION PLAYER

Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a transition player. The player is free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any club, but the designation gives the prior club right of first refusal on any contract the player signs. Transition players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL Player Contract for the average of the 10 largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120% of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

OFFER SHEET

When a restricted free agent receives and agrees to an offer to sign a Player Contract from another NFL club, the player must submit a certificate which contains the principal terms of the contract (offer sheet) to the prior team. The prior club has seven days from the time it receives the offer sheet to exercise or not exercise its right of first refusal.

PHYSICALLY UNABLE TO PERFORM (PUP)

Players placed on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform may attend team meetings, but are ineligible for all games and all practice sessions. Players on the PUP list are allowed to begin practicing with the team after the conclusion of the sixth regular season weekend and continuing after the conclusion of the ninth regular season weekend. The practice period is not to exceed 21 days. Any time during that 21-day period, teams are allowed to restore the player to the Reserve/PUP list or to the active roster.

MINI CAMPS

Each team is allowed to hold one mandatory mini camp for veteran players. If a team hires a new head coach it is allowed to hold two additional voluntary mini camps for veteran players. There is no limitation on the number of mini camps a club may hold for rookie players. Each mini camp can be three days in length and no pads, excluding helmets, are allowed.

TRAINING CAMP

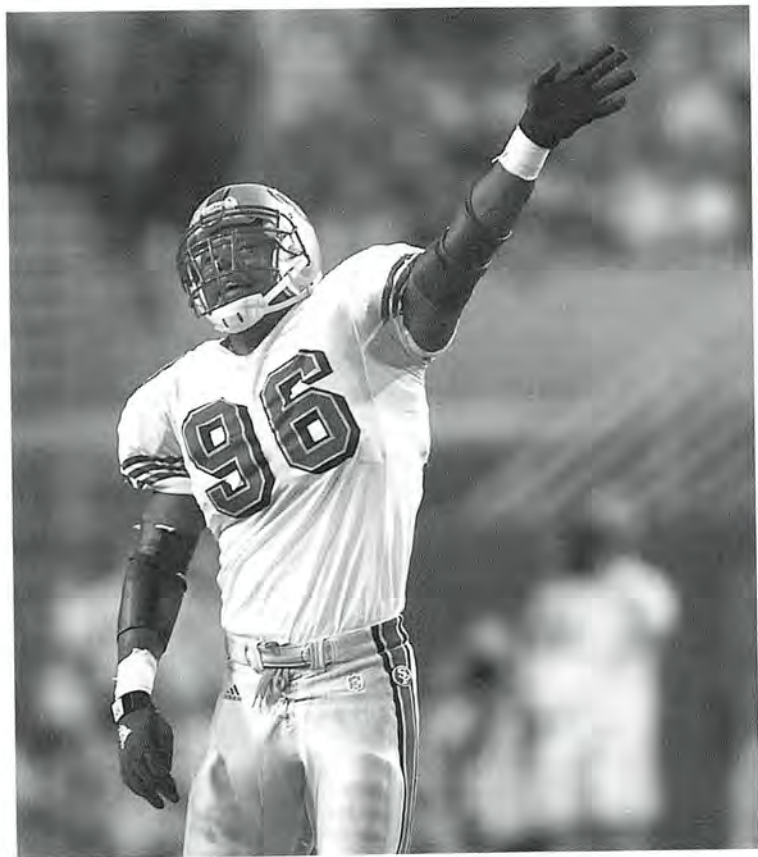

No veteran player, other than quarterbacks and injured players, will be required to report to a team's official training camp earlier than 15 days prior to the first scheduled preseason game or July 15, whichever is later. The July 15 date does not apply to teams participating in the Hall of Fame Game or any American Bowl game.

ACTIVE LIST

Each club is allowed to carry no more than 53 players on its active roster during the season. For each regular season game, the active list limit is 45 players per team. If a team carries the full squad limit of 53 players, it has to place eight players on the inactive list prior to each game.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Each team is allowed to establish a practice squad of no more than five players on the Monday after the final roster cutdown. Players who have served more than one season on the practice squad or have one accrued season of free agent credit are not eligible for the practice squad. A player who gained his one season of accrued free agent credit while being on the Reserve/Injured or Reserve/PUP list for an entire season is eligible for the practice squad.

MEDIA SERVICES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for 49ers players, coaches or members of the administration should be made through the 49ers public relations department. Head coach Steve Mariucci will hold his weekly press luncheon during the season, Monday at noon. He will be available to the media after practice Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and following each game throughout the season. The locker room will be open for player interviews Wednesday and Thursday from 12:30-1:00, and after practice Monday, Friday and Saturday.

Credential Requests: All home game credential requests must be submitted in writing on letterhead to Kirk Reynolds or Darla Maeda no later than Tuesday before the requested game. Media members applying for credentials must call the 49ers public relations department beginning Thursday after 10:00 a.m. to verify approval. Credentials will be left at Press Will Call Gate A on game day, unless other arrangements are made.

Practice Policy: 49ers practices are open to local media only. Visiting and national media will not be permitted to attend practice. Photographers will be allowed to shoot up to and including stretching exercises.

TRAINING CAMP

The University of the Pacific became the seventh summer training camp home for the San Francisco 49ers in 1998. Located on 175 acres next to the Calaveras River in Stockton, CA, the campus provides players and coaches all the necessary elements to prepare for the upcoming season.

Location: University of the Pacific
3601 Pacific Avenue
Stockton, CA 95211

Camp Dates: July 15 through August 17

Veterans report July 18.

Camp Facts: The San Francisco 49ers will open training camp when rookies and selected veterans report to Stockton, CA Saturday, July 15, 2000. The 49ers spent 17 years (1981-97) at Sierra College in Rocklin, CA before making the move to the University of the Pacific last year. The 17-year Rocklin stint tops the 13-year stay (1955-67) at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA as the longest training camp visit in team history. San Francisco has trained at Menlo College (1946-54), UC Santa Barbara (1968-75), San Jose State (1976-78) and Santa Clara (1979-80).

UOP Facts: Founded in 1851 as the first chartered university in California, the University of the Pacific is comprised of 11 schools and colleges on three campuses. Two specialty schools, UOP's School of Dentistry in San Francisco and the McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento, complement the main campus in Stockton. Pacific provides its 6,000 students 80 major fields to choose from and an average class size of under 30. The main campus features the central liberal arts division, schools of music, engineering, education, pharmacy, business and public administration, international studies, a graduate school and University College, which is designed specifically for adult re-entry students.

Stockton Facts: The Stockton metropolitan area has a population of over 230,000. It is surrounded by over 1,000 miles of waterways, making it the largest inland seaport in California.
